Dialogue with USCIS Director León Rodríguez:
Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) Expansion
Wednesday, Feb. 18, 2015
3 to 4:30 p.m. (Eastern)

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) invites you to participate in a Spanish-language stakeholder teleconference with USCIS Director León Rodríguez on Wednesday, Feb. 18, 2015, from 3 to 4:30 p.m. (Eastern) to discuss the expansion of DACA as part of the recently announced executive actions on immigration.

Director Rodríguez will listen and respond to issues of concern to the stakeholder community, and USCIS officials will provide an overview of DACA expansion and seek your feedback.

On Nov. 20, President Obama announced a series of executive actions, including expanding DACA to individuals of any age who came to this country before turning 16 years old and have been present since Jan. 1, 2010. This expansion of DACA will go into effect approximately 90 days following the announcement. The actions also extend the period of DACA and work authorization from two years to three years.
