Artists, Entertainers, and Models in the ‘O’ and ‘P’ Nonimmigrant Classifications

Wednesday, April 13, 2011

3:00pm – 4:30pm (EDT)

Tomich Center

111 Massachusetts Ave NW

Washington, DC 20529

USCIS recently hosted a public engagement on discrete issues for petitioners in the “O” nonimmigrant classification. During that session, stakeholders representing the arts, entertainment, and modeling industries raised a series of additional issues, both general and specific. The significance of the issues raised merits our agency’s attention through further engagement.

USCIS Director Alejandro Mayorkas will host a public engagement to discuss the broader issues of importance to the arts, entertainment, and modeling industries in the “O” and “P” nonimmigrant classifications. The engagement will take place at the USCIS Tomich Center at 3:00 p.m. (EDT) on Wednesday, April 13, 2011. We welcome your participation in person or by teleconference.
