Revisions to the Visa Bulletin for Adjustment of Status Applicants
Wednesday, Sept. 16, 2015
2:00 – 3:00 p.m. (Eastern)

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) invites you to a stakeholder teleconference on Wednesday, Sept. 16 from 2:00 to 3:00p.m. (Eastern) to discuss revised procedures for determining visa availability for applicants waiting to file for employment-based or family-sponsored preference adjustment of status. The revised process will:

- Enhance the Department of State’s (DOS) ability to more accurately predict overall immigrant visa demand and determine the cut-off dates for visa issuance published in the Visa Bulletin; and
- Help ensure that the maximum number of immigrant visas are issued annually as intended by Congress, and minimize month-to-month fluctuations in Visa Bulletin final action dates.

The Visa Bulletin revisions implement November 2014 executive actions on immigration announced by President Obama and Secretary of Homeland Security Johnson, as detailed in the White House report, Modernizing and Streamlining Our Legal Immigration System for the 21st century, issued in July 2015. For more information please refer to our web alert.

During the teleconference, subject matter experts from USCIS and DOS will provide an update on the revised procedures and answer questions.
