USCIS Office of Citizenship

Wednesday, December 14, 2011 @ 1:00 pm (EST)

The USCIS Office of Citizenship and Office of Public Engagement invite you to participate in an engagement on Wednesday, December 14 from 1:00 to 3:00 pm (EST) to discuss citizenship education strategies for older applicants. The engagement will focus on common barriers encountered by older applicants as they prepare for citizenship, promising practices in providing appropriate educational instruction, and other tools and resources to help these individuals prepare for the naturalization process and test.

To Participate in the Session –

This engagement will be held by teleconference as well as in person at the USCIS HQ offices in Washington, DC. If you wish to participate, please email the Office of Public Engagement at public.engagement@dhs.gov no later than Tuesday, December 13, 2011 and reference the following in the subject line of your email:

- To attend in person: “Citizenship – In person”
- To attend via teleconference: “Citizenship – Phone”

Please also include your full name and the organization you represent, if any, in the body of the email.

We look forward to engaging with you!
