National Stakeholder Symposium
Tuesday, June 26, 2012
8:30am – 4:00pm (Eastern)

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) will host a day-long national stakeholder symposium on Tuesday, June 26, 2012 in Washington, D.C. The event will bring together experts from government, advocacy, legal, business, faith-based, academic and humanitarian communities. Pre-registration will begin in late May and attendance will be limited.

The agenda and format is intended to provide opportunities for robust dialogue on key topics of interest to our stakeholders. We are developing an agenda that includes:

- A plenary session led by USCIS Director Alejandro Mayorkas
- Breakout sessions on such topics as:
 - Transforming business practices and streamlining processes;
 - Attracting global talent and achieving consistency in business adjudications;
 - Entrepreneurs in Residence;
 - Meeting the needs of our diverse customer base; and
 - Humanitarian relief efforts

We welcome your input to ensure that areas of discussion are reflective of the interests of our stakeholders. To suggest additional topics for discussion please write to PublicEngagement@uscis.dhs.gov and reference “Symposium Topics” in the subject line of your email.
