

Instructions for Application to Adjust Status From Temporary to Permanent Resident (Under Section 245A of the INA)

Department of Homeland Security
U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services

USCIS
Form I-698
OMB No. 1615-0035
Expires 03/31/2027

What Is the Purpose of This Application?

Persons who were granted temporary residence under section 245A of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) can use this application to apply through U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) to adjust to lawful permanent resident status. Individuals apply under section 245A of the INA, as amended by the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986, and section 902 of the U.S. Department of State Authorization Bill of 1987.

Who May File Form I-698?

To be eligible for lawful permanent residence under section 245A of the INA, you must meet all of the following requirements.

1. Apply for adjustment during the 2-year period beginning with the 19th month after the date you were granted temporary resident status.
2. Reside continuously in the United States since becoming a temporary resident alien (no single absence from the United States exceeded 30 days, or the total of all absences has not exceeded 90 days).

If you are absent from the United States for more than 30 days in a single absence or for more than a total of 90 days for all occurrences, during the period for which continuous residence is required for adjustment to lawful permanent residence, you will break the continuity of your residence unless you can establish to the satisfaction of USCIS that you did not, in fact, abandon your residence in the United States during that period.

3. Establish admissibility under section 212(a) of the INA. In determining the admissibility of an applicant, the provisions of sections 212(a)(6)(A) and 212(a)(7) of the INA will not apply to an applicant for adjustment of status as a temporary resident or lawful permanent resident under section 245A of the INA.

The Secretary of Homeland Security (Secretary) may not waive the following grounds of inadmissibility:

- A. Section 212(a)(2)(A)(i)(I) (crimes involving moral turpitude);
- B. Section 212(a)(2)(A)(i)(II) (crimes involving controlled substances, except for a single offense of simple possession of 30 grams or less of marijuana);
- C. Section 212(a)(2)(B) (multiple criminal convictions);
- D. Section 212(a)(2)(C) (controlled substance traffickers);
- E. Section 212(a)(3) (security and related grounds); and
- F. Section 212(a)(4) (public charge), except for an alien who is or was an aged, blind, or disabled individual (as defined in section 1614(a)(1) of the Social Security Act). An alien is not ineligible for adjustment of status due to inadmissibility under section 212(a)(4) if the alien demonstrates a history of employment in the United States showing self-support without receipt of public assistance. Special adjudication standards regarding public charge contained in any settlement agreements apply.

The Secretary may waive all other grounds of inadmissibility. In order to seek a waiver, you must submit Form I-690, Application for Waiver of Grounds of Inadmissibility Under Sections 245A or 210 of the INA.

4. Were NOT convicted of any felony or three or more misdemeanors committed in the United States.

5. Demonstrate that you:

- A. Meet the requirements of section 312 of the INA (relating to a minimal understanding of ordinary English and a knowledge and understanding of the history and Government of the United States); or
- B. Are satisfactorily pursuing a course of study recognized by the Secretary to achieve understanding of English and knowledge and understanding of the history and Government of the United States. Contact your local USCIS Office for more information about available courses.

If we determine that a biometric services appointment is necessary, we will send you an appointment notice with the date, time, and location of your appointment. If you are currently overseas, your notice will instruct you to contact a U.S. Embassy, U.S. Consulate, or USCIS office outside the United States to schedule an appointment.
