

Instructions for Application for Employment Authorization for Abused Nonimmigrant Spouse

Department of Homeland Security
U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services

USCIS
Form I-765V
OMB No. 1615-0137
Expires 03/31/2027

What Is the Purpose of Form I-765V?

Form I-765V, Application for Employment Authorization for Abused Nonimmigrant Spouse, allows you to apply for employment authorization under the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) section 106 if you are the spouse of a certain type of nonimmigrant and you or your child have been battered or subjected to extreme cruelty. INA section 106 was added by the Violence Against Women and Department of Justice Reauthorization Act of 2005 (VAWA 2005), Public Law (Pub. L.) 109-162.

Employment authorization is a benefit granted for a limited period of time and does not make you eligible for a lawful immigration status in the United States. Receiving an Employment Authorization Document (EAD) will have no effect on your immigration status.

Definitions

Employment Authorization Document (EAD): The EAD is the card (also known as Form I-688, Form I-688A, Form I-688B, or Form I-766), or any successor document issued by U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) as evidence that an individual is authorized to work in the United States.

Renewal EAD: An EAD issued to an eligible applicant upon the expiration of a previous EAD issued under the same category.

Replacement EAD: An EAD issued to an eligible applicant when the previous EAD issued under the same category was lost, stolen, or mutilated, or contains erroneous information, such as a misspelled name.

Who May File Form I-765V?

In order to file Form I-765V, you must be eligible under one of the categories listed below. Enter that category in Part 2., Item Number 24. on Form I-765V. (For example, if you are the abused spouse of an H nonimmigrant, type or print (c)(30) in Part 2., Item Number 24.) Enter only one of the following category numbers:

1. Abused spouse of an A nonimmigrant - (c)(27).
2. Abused spouse of an E-3 nonimmigrant - (c)(28).
3. Abused spouse of a G nonimmigrant - (c)(29).
4. Abused spouse of an H nonimmigrant - (c)(30).

To be eligible for employment authorization as an abused nonimmigrant spouse, you must submit credible evidence demonstrating that you:

1. Are the qualifying spouse who accompanied or followed to join a principal nonimmigrant spouse admitted under INA section 101(a)(15)(A), (E)(iii), (G), or (H). To prove you are in a qualifying marital relationship, you must demonstrate that you:
 - A. Are married to a qualifying nonimmigrant spouse; or
 - B. Were married to a qualifying nonimmigrant spouse; and
 - (1) Your spouse died within the two years before you filed Form I-765V;
 - (2) Your spouse lost qualifying nonimmigrant status due to an incident of domestic violence; or

- (3) Your marriage was terminated within the two years before you filed Form I-765V and there is a connection between the termination of the marriage and the battery or extreme cruelty perpetrated by your former spouse;
 2. Were last admitted to the United States as a nonimmigrant under INA section 101(a)(15)(A), (E)(iii), (G), or (H);
 3. Were battered or subjected to extreme cruelty (or your child was battered or subjected to extreme cruelty) by your nonimmigrant spouse during the marriage and after being admitted as a nonimmigrant under INA section 101(a)(15)(A), (E)(iii), (G), or (H); and
 4. Currently reside in the United States.

NOTE: If you remarry before USCIS adjudicates your Form I-765V, USCIS will deny your application.

General Instructions

We provide free forms through the USCIS website. To view, print, or complete our forms, you should use the latest version of Adobe Reader, which you can download for free at <http://get.adobe.com/reader/>. If you do not have Internet access, you may call the USCIS Contact Center and ask that we mail a form to you.

Signature. You (or your signing authority) must properly complete your application. USCIS will not accept a stamped or typewritten name in place of any signature on this application. If you are under 14 years of age, your parent or legal guardian may sign the application on your behalf. A legal guardian may also sign for a mentally incompetent person. If your application is not signed, or if the signature is not valid, we will reject your application. See 8 CFR 103.2(a)(7)(ii)(A). If USCIS accepts a request for adjudication and determines that it has a deficient signature, USCIS may deny the request.

Validity of Signatures. USCIS will consider a photocopied, faxed, or scanned copy of the original, handwritten signature valid for filing purposes. The photocopy, fax, or scan must be of the original document containing the handwritten, ink signature.

Filing Fee. See Form G-1055, available at www.uscis.gov/forms, for specific information about the fees applicable to this form.

Evidence. When you file your application, you must submit all evidence and supporting documents listed in the What Evidence Must You Submit and/or Specific Instructions sections of these Instructions.

Biometric Services Appointment. USCIS may require you to appear for an interview or provide biometrics (fingerprints, photograph, and/or signature) at any time to verify your identity, obtain additional information, and conduct background and security checks, including a check of criminal history records maintained by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), before making a decision on your application or petition. If we determine that a biometric services appointment is necessary, we will send you an appointment notice with the date, time, and location of your appointment. If you are currently overseas, your notice will instruct you to contact a U.S. Embassy, U.S. Consulate, or USCIS office outside the United States to schedule an appointment.

At your biometrics appointment you must sign an oath reaffirming that:

1. You provided or authorized all information in the application;
2. You reviewed and understood all of the information contained in, and submitted with, your application; and
3. All of this information was complete, true, and correct at the time of filing.

If you do not attend your biometric services appointment, USCIS may deny your application.

Copies. You should submit legible photocopies of requested documents unless the Instructions specifically instruct you to submit an original document. USCIS may request an original document at any time during our process. If we request an original document from you, we will return it to you after USCIS determines it no longer needs the original.

NOTE: If you submit original documents when their not required or requested, USCIS may destroy them after we receive them.

Translations. If you submit a document with information in a foreign language, you must also submit a full English translation. The translator must sign a certification that the English language translation is complete and accurate, and that they are competent to translate from the foreign language into English. The certification must also include their signature, printed name, the signature date, and their contact information.

USCIS Contact Center. For additional information on the application and Instructions about where to file, change of address, and other questions, visit the USCIS Contact Center at www.uscis.gov/contactcenter or call at 800-375-5283 (TTY 800-767-1833). The USCIS Contact Center provides information in English and Spanish.

Disability Accommodations/Modifications. To request a disability accommodation/modification, follow the instructions on your appointment notice or at www.uscis.gov/accommodationsinfo.

How To Complete Form I-765V

1. Type or print legibly in black ink.
2. If you need extra space to complete any item within this application, use the space provided in Part 9. Additional Information or attach a separate sheet of paper. Type or print your name and Alien Registration Number (A-Number) (if any) at the top of each sheet; indicate the Page Number, Part Number, and Item Number to which your answer refers; and sign and date each sheet.
3. Answer all questions fully and accurately. If a question does not apply to you (for example, if you have never been married and the question asks, “Provide the name of your current spouse”), type or print “N/A” unless otherwise directed. If your answer to a question which requires a numeric response is zero or none (for example, “How many children do you have” or “How many times have you departed the United States”), type or print “None” unless otherwise directed.

Specific Instructions

Part 1. Reason for Applying

Complete this section in its entirety. If you need extra space to provide any additional information within this application, use the space provided in Part 9. Additional Information.

Item Number 1. Select the box that best describes your reason for applying.

Replacement for Lost, Stolen, or Damaged EAD. If you are requesting a replacement EAD because your previously issued card was lost, stolen, or damaged, but has not expired, you must file a new Form I-765V.

Replacement for Card Error

1. If the card we issued to you contains incorrect information that is attributed to our error, you do not need to file a new Form I-765V. Instead, you must submit a letter, accompanied by the card containing the error, to the service center that approved your last Form I-765V. There is no fee to replace a card due to our error.
2. If the card we issued to you contains incorrect information that is not attributed to our error, you must submit a new Form I-765V and include the card containing the error.

Part 2. Information About You

Item Numbers 1.a. - 1.c. Your Full Name. Provide your full legal name as shown on your birth certificate or legal change of name document in the spaces provided.

Item Numbers 2.a.- 2.c. Other Names Used (if any). Provide all other names you have ever used since birth, including aliases, maiden name, and nicknames.

Item Numbers 3.a. - 4. Safe Mailing Address. If you do not feel safe receiving correspondence regarding this application at your residential address, provide an alternate or safe mailing address in Part 2., Item Numbers 3.a. - 3.f. You may provide a post office box (PO Box) or the address of a friend, your attorney, a community-based organization that is helping you, or any other address where you can safely and punctually receive mail. If an alternate or safe mailing address is not provided in Part 2., Item Numbers 3.a. - 3.f., USCIS may use the address of your preparer, if any. If your safe mailing address is not the same as the address where you currently reside, provide your U.S. physical address in Item Numbers 5.a. - 5.e.

Item Numbers 5.a. - 5.e. U.S. Physical Address. Provide your physical address where you currently reside in the United States.

Item Number 6. Alien Registration Number (A-Number) (if any). Provide your A-Number. We use your A-Number to identify your immigration records. It begins with an “A” and can be found on correspondence you have received from the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) or USCIS. If you do not have an A-Number, type or print “N/A.” If you have more than one A-Number, use the space provided in Part 9. Additional Information to provide the information.

Item Number 7. USCIS Online Account Number. You will only have a USCIS Online Account Number (OAN) if you previously filed a form that has a receipt number that begins with IOE. If you filed the form online, you can find your OAN in your account profile. If you mailed us the form, you can find your OAN at the top of the Account Access Notice we sent you. If you do not have a receipt number that begins with IOE, you do not have an OAN. The OAN is not the same as an A-Number.

Item Numbers 8.a. - 12.b. Questions regarding Social Security number (SSN). Item Number 8.a. asks you if the Social Security Administration (SSA) has ever officially issued you a Social Security card. If the SSA ever issued a Social Security card to you in your name or a previously used name such as your maiden name, then you must enter the SSN from your card in Item Number 8.b.

If your request for employment authorization is approved, the SSA may assign you a SSN and issue you a Social Security card or issue you a replacement card. If you want the SSA to assign you a Social Security number and issue you a Social Security card or to issue you a new or replacement Social Security card, then answer “Yes” to both Item Number 9. and Item Number 10. You must also provide your father’s and mother’s family and given names at birth in Item Numbers 11.a. - 12.b. SSA will use Item Numbers 11.a. - 12.b. in issuing you a Social Security card.

You are not required to request an SSN using this application. Completing Item Numbers 8.a. - 12.b. is optional. However, you must have an SSN properly assigned in your name to work in the United States.

NOTE: If your employer uses E-Verify to confirm new employees’ eligibility to legally work in the United States, the information you provide on Form I-9, Employment Eligibility Verification, will be compared to data in SSA and DHS databases. Employees must have an SSN in order for E-Verify to confirm their eligibility to legally work in the United States.

Item Numbers 13.a. - 13.b. Country or Countries of Citizenship or Nationality. Provide the name of the country where you are a citizen and/or national. This is not necessarily the country where you were born. If you do not have citizenship in any country, type or print “stateless” and provide an explanation in Part 9. Additional Information.

Item Numbers 14.a. - 14.c. Place of Birth. Enter the name of the city, town, or village; state or province; and country where you were born. Type or print the name of the country as it was named when you were born, even if the country’s name has changed or the country no longer exists.

1. If you are stateless, type or print the name of the country where you were last a citizen or national.
2. If you are a citizen or national of more than one country, type or print the name of the foreign country that issued your last passport.

Item Number 15. Date of Birth. Enter your date of birth in mm/dd/yyyy format in the space provided. For example, type or print October 5, 1967 as 10/05/1967.

Item Number 16. Gender. Select the box that indicates whether you are male or female.

Item Numbers 17.a - 18.d. Previous Application for Employment Authorization from USCIS. If you have applied for employment authorization in the past, select “Yes” and complete Item Numbers 17. - 18.d. Provide the receipt number of your most recently filed application for employment authorization, the USCIS office that adjudicated the application, the date USCIS adjudicated the application, and whether the application was approved or denied. Attach all documentation.

Item Number 19. Place of Your Last Admission Into the United States. Provide the location where you were last admitted into the United States.

Item Number 20. Date of Your Last Admission Into the United States, On or About. Provide the date of your most recent admission into the United States in the mm/dd/yyyy format.

Item Number 21. Your Immigration Status When You Were Last Admitted Into the United States. Provide the letter and number that correlates with your immigration status when you were last admitted into the United States.

Item Numbers 22.a. - 22.f. Form I-94, Arrival/Departure Record. If U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) or USCIS issued you a Form I-94, Arrival/Departure Record, provide your Form I-94 number and date that your authorized period of stay expires or expired (as shown on Form I-94). The Form I-94 number also is known as the Departure Number on some versions of Form I-94.

NOTE: If CBP admitted you into the United States at an airport or seaport after April 30, 2013, they may have issued you an electronic Form I-94 instead of a paper Form I-94. You may visit the CBP website at www.cbp.gov/i94 to obtain a paper version of your electronic Form I-94. CBP does not charge a fee for this service. Some travelers may also be able to obtain a replacement Form I-94 from the CBP website for free if they were admitted to the United States at a land border, airport, or seaport after April 30, 2013, with a passport or travel document and received a paper Form I-94 from CBP. If you cannot obtain your Form I-94 from the CBP website, you may obtain it by filing Form I-102, Application for Replacement/Initial Nonimmigrant Arrival-Departure Record, with USCIS. USCIS does charge a fee for Form I-102. See Form G-1055, available at www.uscis.gov/forms, for specific information about the fees applicable to this form.

Passport and Travel Document Numbers. If you used a passport or travel document to travel to the United States, enter the passport or travel document information in the appropriate space on the application, even if the passport or travel document is currently expired.

Item Number 23. Your Current Immigration Status. Provide the letter and number that correlates with your current immigration status. If you are present in the U.S. without lawful immigration status, type or print, “No Lawful Status.”

Item Number 24. Eligibility Category. Provide the eligibility category under which you are requesting employment authorization: (c)(27) - abused spouse of A nonimmigrant, (c)(28) - abused spouse of E-3 nonimmigrant, (c)(29) - abused spouse of G nonimmigrant, or (c)(30) - abused spouse of H nonimmigrant.

Part 3. Biographic Information

Provide the biographic information requested in Part 3., Item Numbers 1. - 6. Providing this information as part of your application may reduce the time you spend at your USCIS ASC appointment as described in the Biometric Services Appointment section of these Instructions.

Item Numbers 1. - 2. Ethnicity and Race. Select the boxes that best describe your ethnicity and race.

Categories and Definitions for Ethnicity and Race

- 1. Hispanic or Latino. A person of Cuban, Mexican, Puerto Rican, South or Central American, or other Spanish culture or origin, regardless of race. (NOTE: This category is only included under Ethnicity in Part 3., Item Number 1.)
- 2. American Indian or Alaska Native. A person having origins in any of the original peoples of North and South America (including Central America), and who maintains tribal affiliation or community attachment.

- 3. Asian. A person having origins in any of the original peoples of the Far East, Southeast Asia, or the Indian subcontinent including, for example, Cambodia, China, India, Japan, Korea, Malaysia, Pakistan, the Philippine Islands, Thailand, and Vietnam.
 - 4. Black or African American. A person having origins in any of the black racial groups of Africa.
 - 5. Native Hawaiian or Other Pacific Islander. A person having origins in any of the original peoples of Hawaii, Guam, Samoa, or other Pacific Islands.
 - 6. White. A person having origins in any of the original peoples of Europe, the Middle East, or North Africa.

Item Number 3. Height. Select the values that best match your height in feet and inches. For example, if you are five feet and nine inches, select “5” for feet and “09” for inches. Do not enter your height in meters or centimeters.

Item Number 4. Weight. Enter your weight in pounds. If you do not know your weight or need to enter a weight under 30 pounds or over 699 pounds, enter “000.” Do not enter your weight in kilograms.

Item Number 5. Eye Color. Select the box that best describes the color of your eyes.

Item Number 6. Hair Color. Select the box that best describes the color of your hair.

Part 4. Information About Your Spouse

Provide the information requested in this section, if known. If you need extra space to complete this section, use the space provided in Part 9. Additional Information. If you do not know the answer to a question, type or print “unknown,” unless otherwise directed. Submit evidence to demonstrate the immigration status of your spouse. This may include a copy of his or her passport, travel document information, or evidence of his or her A-Number.

Although you may not be able to provide evidence of your spouse’s nonimmigrant status, you must provide some identifying evidence such as name, place of birth, country of birth, date of birth, date of entry into the United States, Form I-94 Number, employer, etc. USCIS will attempt to verify the qualifying nonimmigrant status of your spouse by conducting a search of the appropriate electronic systems.

Item Numbers 1.a. - 1.c. Your Spouse’s Full Name. Provide your spouse’s full legal name in the spaces provided. Do not use nicknames.

Item Number 2. Date of Birth. Type or print your spouse’s date of birth using the mm/dd/yyyy format. For example, type or print October 5, 1967 as 10/05/1967.

Item Number 3. Country of Birth. Type or print the name of the country where your spouse was born.

Item Numbers 4.a. - 4.e. U.S. Physical Address. Provide the physical address where your spouse currently resides.

Item Number 5. Alien Registration Number (A-Number) (if any). Provide your spouse’s A-Number. An A-Number is typically issued to someone who applies for or is granted certain immigration benefits. ICE, CBP, EOIR, DOS, and USCIS may issue A-Numbers. If your spouse was issued an A-Number, type or print it in the spaces provided.

Item Number 6. USCIS Online Account Number. You will only have a USCIS Online Account Number (OAN) if you previously filed a form that has a receipt number that begins with IOE. If you filed the form online, you can find your OAN in your account profile. If you mailed us the form, you can find your OAN at the top of the Account Access Notice we sent you. If you do not have a receipt number that begins with IOE, you do not have an OAN. The OAN is not the same as an A-Number.

Item Numbers 7.a. - 7.e. Form I-94 Arrival/Departure Record. If U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) or USCIS issued your spouse a Form I-94, Arrival/Departure Record, provide your spouse’s Form I-94 number and date that your spouse’s authorized period of stay expires or expired (as shown on Form I-94). The Form I-94 number also is known as the Departure Number on some versions of Form I-94.

Passport and Travel Document Numbers. If your spouse used a passport or travel document to travel to the United States, enter the passport or travel document information (if available) in the appropriate space on the application, even if the passport or travel document is currently expired.

Item Number 8. Your Spouse's Nonimmigrant Status. Indicate your spouse's nonimmigrant status by selecting the appropriate classification.

Part 5. Marriage Information

Submit a copy of your marriage certificate or other evidence to demonstrate that you have a qualifying relationship with your spouse listed in Part 4.

Item Numbers 1.a. - 5.b. Your Current Marital Status. Select only one box and provide the information related to your selection.

Part 6. Applicant's Statement, Contact Information, Declaration, Certification, and Signature

Item Numbers 1.a. - 6.b. Select the appropriate box to indicate whether you read this application yourself or whether you had an interpreter assist you. If someone assisted you in completing the application, select the box indicating that you used a preparer. Further, you must sign and date your application and provide your daytime telephone number, mobile telephone number (if any), and email address (if any). Every application MUST contain the signature of the applicant (or parent or legal guardian, if applicable). A stamped or typewritten name in place of a signature is not acceptable.

Part 7. Interpreter's Contact Information, Certification, and Signature

Item Numbers 1.a. - 7.b. If you used anyone as an interpreter to read the Instructions and questions on this application to you in a language in which you are fluent, the interpreter must fill out this section; provide his or her name, the name and address of his or her business or organization (if any), his or her daytime telephone number, his or her mobile telephone number (if any), and his or her email address (if any). The interpreter must sign and date the application.

Part 8. Contact Information, Declaration, and Signature of the Person Preparing this Application, if Other Than the Applicant

Item Numbers 1.a. - 8.b. This section must contain the signature of the person who completed your application, if other than you, the applicant. If the same individual acted as your interpreter and your preparer, that person should complete both Part 6. and Part 7. If the person who completed this application is associated with a business or organization, that person should complete the business or organization name and address information. Anyone who helped you complete this application MUST sign and date the application. A stamped or typewritten name in place of a signature is not acceptable. If the person who helped you prepare your application is an attorney or accredited representative, he or she may also need to submit a completed Form G-28, Notice of Entry of Appearance as Attorney or Accredited Representative, along with your application.

Part 9. Additional Information

Item Numbers 1.a. - 7.d. If you need extra space to provide any additional information within this application, use the space provided in Part 9. Additional Information. If you need more space than what is provided in Part 9., you may make copies of Part 9. to complete and file with your application, or attach a separate sheet of paper. Type or print your name and A-Number (if any) at the top of each sheet; indicate the Page Number, Part Number, and Item Number to which your answer refers; and sign and date each sheet.

We recommend that you print or save a copy of your completed application to review in the future and for your records.

Required Documentation

You must submit all evidence requested in these Instructions with your application. If you do not submit the required evidence, USCIS may reject or deny your application for failure to submit requested evidence or supporting documents in accordance with 8 CFR 103.2(b)(1) and these Instructions.

You may file your application with any credible relevant evidence of your eligibility. USCIS will use its discretion to determine what evidence is credible and what weight to give to that evidence. You are encouraged to provide the following documentation along with your completed Form I-765V.

1. Evidence of your qualifying nonimmigrant status, which may include:
 - A. Form I-94 front and back (if available).
 - B. Passport biographic page or Travel Document biographic page and the page with the CBP admission stamp from the most recent entry into the United States (if available).
 - C. A copy of any immigration document you may have that was issued by USCIS or the former Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) demonstrating that you were admitted under INA section 101(a)(15) subparagraph (A), (E)(iii), (G), or (H) (if available).
2. A copy of any documentation you have establishing your identity and current nationality (examples include the photo page of your passport, NATO agreement, or other immigration documents).
3. Evidence of your spouse's qualifying nonimmigrant status.

NOTE: Although you may not be able to provide evidence of your spouse's nonimmigrant status, you must provide some identifying evidence such as name, place of birth, country of birth, date of birth, date of entry into the United States, I-94 number, employer, etc. USCIS will attempt to verify the qualifying nonimmigrant status of your spouse by conducting a search of the appropriate electronic systems.

4. Evidence of your qualifying relationship to your spouse. Evidence may include a marriage certificate, your affidavit, affidavits from others with knowledge of your qualifying relationship, or other evidence of your legal relationship to the abuser.
5. Evidence of the abuse, such as protection orders, police reports, court records, medical records, reports from social services agencies, a signed statement from you detailing the abuse suffered since your admission to the United States, and/or affidavits from third parties who can knowledgeably attest to the abuse you experienced. If your application is based on a claim that your child was battered or subjected to extreme cruelty, you should also submit evidence demonstrating your parental relationship with the abused child, such as the child's birth certificate.

NOTE: USCIS will consider all credible evidence relevant to the application under the "any credible evidence" standard in INA section 204(a)(1)(J).

You cannot appeal a denied Form I-765V. However, if you are denied, you may still file a new Form I-765V.

Renewal Applications for Employment Authorization

If you are applying to renew your employment authorization under INA section 106, you must include:

1. A completed and signed Form I-765V; and
2. Evidence that your nonimmigrant spouse maintains valid immigration status under INA section 101(a)(15)(A), (E)(iii), (G), or (H) on the date you file your renewal application. If you cannot provide the documentation requested above, you must submit a signed statement explaining why you cannot provide the documentation. USCIS will conduct a search of the appropriate electronic systems to attempt to verify your spouse's status.

You are also encouraged to submit evidence of previous employment authorizations issued under INA section 106, such as copies of your employment authorization documents or approval notices issued by USCIS.

You do not need to resubmit evidence of battery or extreme cruelty, or admission to the United States in qualifying nonimmigrant status, with your renewal application.

When You May File

You may file an application to renew your EAD within two years of:

1. The date of your principal nonimmigrant spouse's death;
2. The date your principal nonimmigrant spouse lost status as a result of an incident of domestic violence; or
3. The termination of the marriage if there is a connection between the termination of the marriage and the battery or extreme cruelty by your principal nonimmigrant spouse.

If you remarry before USCIS adjudicates your Form I-765V, USCIS will deny your application.

Where To File?

Please see our website at www.uscis.gov/i-765v for the most current information about where to file this application.

Address Change

If you are not a U.S. citizen, you must notify USCIS of your new address within 10 days of moving from your previous residence. For information on changing your address, go to our website at www.uscis.gov/addresschange or contact the USCIS Contact Center.

NOTE: Do not submit a change of address request to the USCIS Lockbox. f

Processing Information

You must have a United States address to file this application.

Initial Processing. Once USCIS accepts your application, we will check it for completeness. If you do not properly complete this application, you will not establish a basis for your eligibility and we may reject or deny your application.

Requests for More Information. USCIS may request that you provide more information or evidence to support your application. We may also request that you provide the originals of any copies you submit. If we request an original document from you, we will return it to you after USCIS determines it is no longer needed.

Requests for Interview. We may request that you appear at a USCIS office for an interview based on your application. During your interview, USCIS may require you to provide your biometrics to verify your identity and/or update background and security checks.

Decision. The decision on Form I-765V involves a determination of whether you have established eligibility for the immigration benefit you are seeking. USCIS will notify you of the decision in writing.

Approval. If your application is approved, we will either mail your EAD to your safe mailing address or we may require you to visit your local USCIS office to pick it up.

Denial. If USCIS cannot grant your application, you will receive a written notice explaining the basis of your denial.

Penalties

If you knowingly and willfully falsify or conceal a material fact or submit a false document with your Form I-765V, we will deny your Form I-765V and may deny any other immigration benefit. In addition, you will face severe penalties provided by law and may be subject to criminal prosecution.

DHS Privacy Notice

AUTHORITIES: The information requested on this application, and the associated evidence, is collected pursuant to Section 106 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), as amended and Section 814(c) of the Violence Against Women Act of 2005, which extends employment authorization eligibility to battered spouses of nonimmigrants admitted under subparagraph (A), (E)(iii), (G), or (H) of section 101(a)(15) of the Act.

PURPOSE: The primary purpose for providing the requested information on this application is to determine your employment eligibility. The information is used to approve or deny your request for an Employment Authorization Document.

DISCLOSURE: The information you provide is voluntary. However, failure to provide the requested information, and any requested evidence, may delay a final decision or result in the denial of your benefit request.

ROUTINE USES: The information will be used by and disclosed to DHS personnel and contractors or other agents in accordance with approved routine uses, as described in the associated published system of records notices [DHS/USCIS/ICE/CBP-001 Alien File, Index, and National File Tracking System of Records, DHS-USCIS-007 Benefit Information System, and DHS/USCIS-018 Immigration Biometric and Background Check] and published privacy impact assessment [DHS/USCIS/PIA-016(a) Computer Linked Application Information Management System and Associated Systems], which you can find at www.dhs.gov/privacy. This information may also be made available, as appropriate, for law enforcement purposes or in the interest of national security.
