

Understanding Commands for the Naturalization Interview: Practice Exercise

This self-study Practice Exercise has commands that you may hear during the naturalization interview. In this exercise, you can read and hear the commands online before taking the USCIS Practice Test, Understanding Commands for the Naturalization Interview. The bolded words represent verbs or verb phrases.

Instructions:

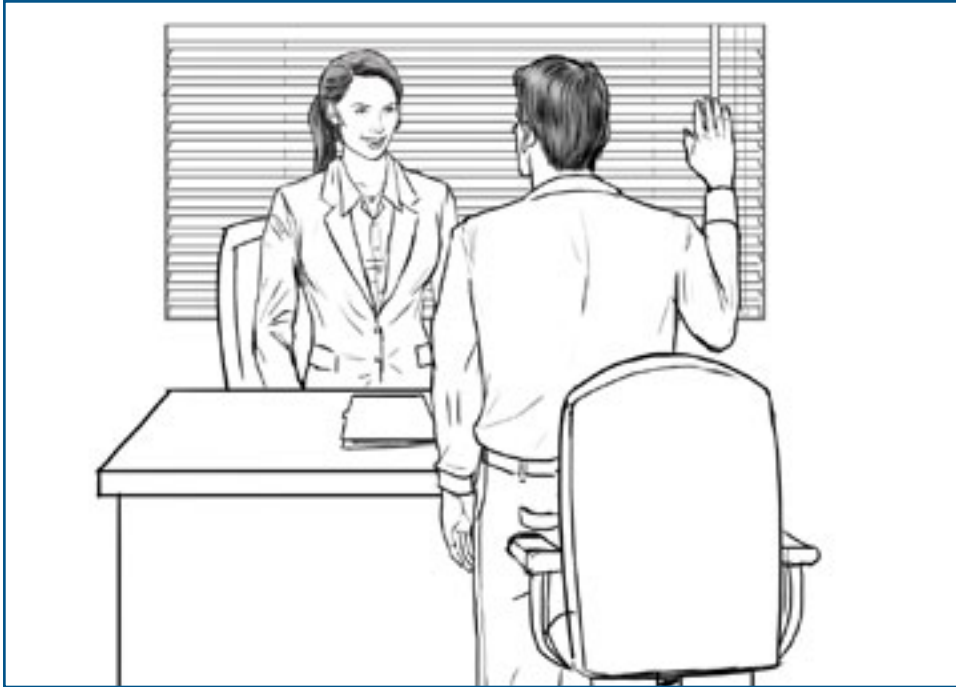

- Look at each picture and read the sentence.
- Click on the red audio button  and listen to the sentence.
- Repeat the sentence out loud.

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration
Services

Please follow me.

Raise your right hand.

Sign your name here.

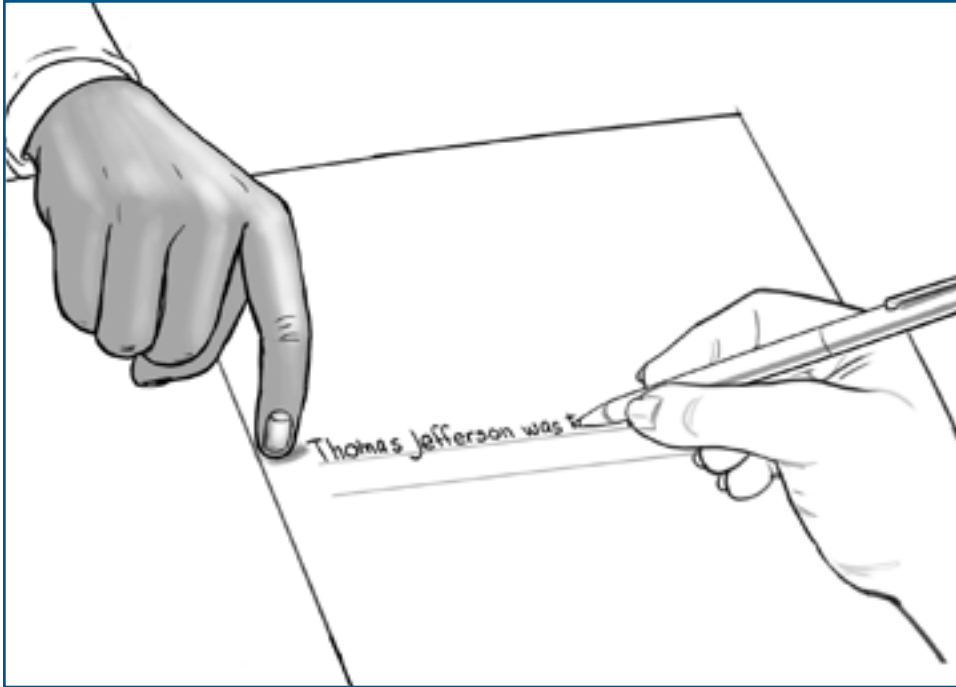

Please be seated.

Read this sentence.

Please remain standing.

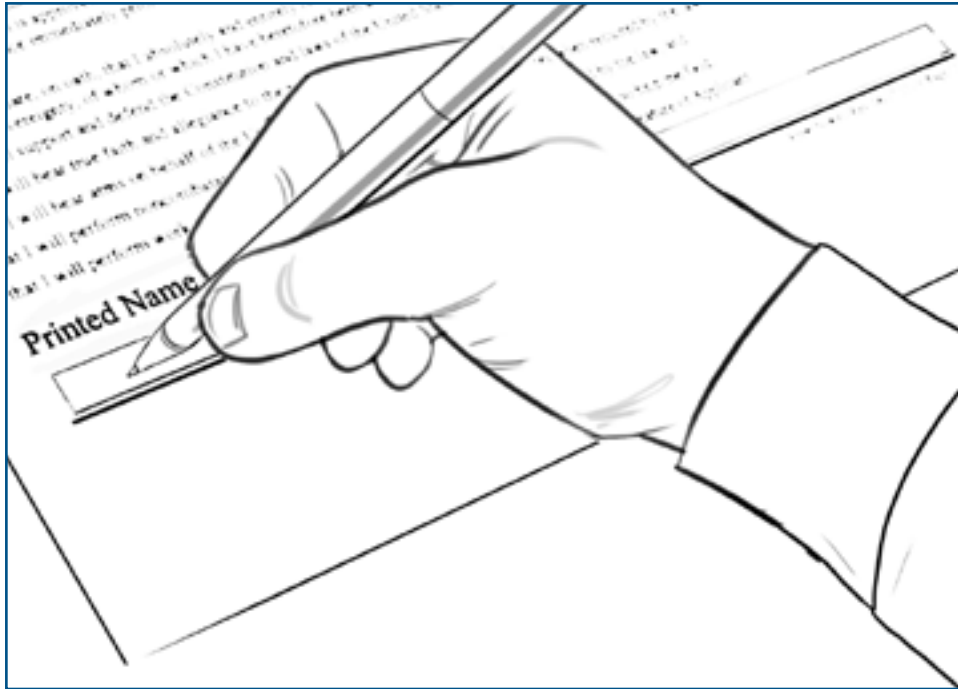

Write this sentence here.

Please wait here.

Please hand me your passport.

Please print your name.