Case No. 4:20-cv-08143-HSG

JOINT MOTION FOR APPROVAL OF SETTLEMENT: ORDER

Hon. Haywood S. Gilliam, Jr.

The parties hereby jointly request that this Court approve and adopt the attached Settlement Agreement and dismiss this case. Attached as Exhibit 1 is the parties' Settlement Agreement that proposes a settlement of this case, as modified to reflect the Court's instructions from the Case Management Conference from July 13, 2021. The substantial relief provided by the Settlement Agreement to the Plaintiffs will also provide relief for more than sixty thousand applicants similarly situated to Plaintiffs. Although Plaintiffs' Complaint was filed as a putative class action and Plaintiffs filed a motion for class certification on November 19, 2020, briefing

1 has not been completed and no class has been certified. Furthermore, Defendants, agreed to
2 rescind the policy challenged in the Complaint and agreed to provide relief to Plaintiffs as well
3 as to other similarly situated individuals, as laid out in the Settlement Agreement. As such, this 4 Court's order adopting the Settlement Agreement provides relief beyond the Plaintiffs without 5 the need for protracted litigation and the accompanying drain of resources required to certify a
6 class and bind class members to any such settlement. Accordingly, the Parties respectfully
7 request this Court adopt the Settlement Agreement and dismiss this case.

Case No. 20-cv-08143-HSG

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

This Settlement Agreement is entered into by and between Akhilesh R. Vangala, I.S.A., and Kenny M. Castaneda Penate (“Plaintiffs”), and United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (“USCIS”) and Department of Homeland Security (“DHS”) (collectively “Defendants”). Plaintiffs and Defendants are referred to collectively herein as the “Parties.” Out of a mutual desire to resolve all of the claims in the above-captioned case (the “Action”) without need for further litigation and without admission of any liability, the Parties hereby stipulate and agree as follows:

I. RECITALS

WHEREAS:

1. On November 19, 2020, Plaintiffs filed this putative class action alleging that USCIS, a component of DHS, implemented policies of rejecting immigration benefit requests if any field on certain multi-page applications was left blank (hereinafter “No Blank Space Rejection Policy”); and that the process by which USCIS adopted the No Blank Space Rejection Policy and implemented it violated the Administrative Procedure Act (“APA”);

2. Plaintiffs are three noncitizens who each had a benefit request rejected pursuant to the No Blank Space Rejection Policy. Plaintiffs brought this action on behalf of themselves and sought to certify a class of all individuals who had submitted benefit requests, or would submit benefit requests, that had been or would be rejected by USCIS pursuant to the No Blank Space Rejection Policy;
3. Although Plaintiffs’ Complaint was filed as a putative class action and Plaintiffs filed a motion for class certification on November 19, 2020, briefing has not been completed and no class has been certified;
4. Shortly after the lawsuit was filed, the Parties agreed to discuss settlement and, while such discussions were ongoing, Defendant USCIS agreed to and did halt the No Blank Space Rejection Policy on December 22, 2020, and Plaintiffs agreed to postpone filing a motion for preliminary injunctive relief;
5. Defendants have identified 43,501 submissions of USCIS Form I-589, Application for Asylum and for Withholding of Removal, and 17,000 submissions of USCIS Form I-918, Petition for U Nonimmigrant Status, that may have been rejected pursuant to the No Blank Space Rejection Policy between October 7, 2019, the date the No Blank Space Rejection Policy was implemented, and December 22, 2020;
6. There may be additional benefit requests that were rejected pursuant to the No Blank Space Rejection Policy during such period, which Defendants have not been able to identify;
7. The Parties wish to resolve the disputes that are the subject of the Action without the expense and drain on resources that may be associated with protracted litigation.

II. TERMS OF THE SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises set forth herein, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, and subject to approval of the Court, the Parties agree as follows:

A. Definitions

For purposes of this Settlement Agreement, the following terms shall be defined as:

1. Action: The term “Action” means the lawsuit Vangala, et al. v. USCIS, et al., No. 4:20-cv-8143-HSG (N.D. Cal.).

4. No Blank Space Rejection Policy: The term “No Blank Space Rejection Policy” shall mean USCIS’s policy or policies that required its personnel to reject any Form I-589 or Form I-918 application or petition if any response field to a question on such benefit request was left blank. Beginning on October 7, 2019, USCIS applied the No Blank Space Rejection Policy to Form I-589 (Applications for Asylum and for Withholding of Removal), and on December 30, 2019, to Form I-918 (Petition for U Nonimmigrant Status) and Form I-918, Supplement A (Petition for Qualifying Family Member of U-1 Recipient).
5. Effective Date: The term “Effective Date” means the date this Agreement receives final approval by the Court.
6. Regular Rejection Policy: The term “Regular Rejection Policy” shall mean a USCIS rejection policy that does not include a No Blank Space Rejection Policy. For Form I-918, the Regular Rejection Policy refers to the rejection policy that existed prior to the adoption of the No Blank Space Rejection Policy on December 30, 2019. For Form I-589, the Regular Rejection Policy refers to the nationwide rejection policy that was first implemented on December 23, 2020, and later refined to eliminate the No Blank Space Rejection Policy.
7. Original Receipt Date: The term “Original Receipt Date” shall mean the date on which USCIS received a benefit request that was then rejected pursuant to the No Blank Space Rejection Policy.

B. The individuals covered by the Settlement Agreement are:

1. All individuals who submitted one or more of the following with USCIS:
  - a. A Form I-589, Application for Asylum and for Withholding of Removal;

AND

2. For whom USCIS rejected a benefit request described in Section II.B.1.:

a. Timing:

i. For Form I-589, between October 7, 2019 and December 22, 2020, inclusive; or

ii. For Forms I-918 and I-918A, between December 30, 2019 and December 22, 2020, inclusive; and

b. The rejection was pursuant to the No Blank Space Rejection Policy.

3. Additionally, while the No Blank Space Rejection Policy only applied to the forms in Section II.B.1., a.-c., ancillary or accompanying forms may also have been rejected, such as Form I-918, Supplement B, U Nonimmigrant Status Certification (hereinafter “I-918B”), Form I-192, Application for Advance Permission to Enter as a Nonimmigrant, or Form I-765, Application for Employment Authorization. Thus, resubmission under the terms of the Settlement Agreement includes the accompanying forms that generally are required to be submitted with the benefit request as provided in the form instructions or applicable regulations.
4. Furthermore, Applicants described in Section II.B.1. a.-c. who had Benefit Requests rejected after December 22, 2020, based on the rescinded No Blank Space Rejection Policy also are entitled to the benefits of this Settlement Agreement.

C. Rescission of the No Blank Space Rejection Policy:

1. USCIS has rescinded, as of December 23, 2020, the No Blank Space Rejection Policy and practices related to it, and all guidance or standard operating procedures relating to the No Blank Space Rejection Policy that expanded the rejection criteria beyond the Regular Rejection Policy, for Forms I-589, I-918, and I-918A.
2. Beginning December 23, 2020, USCIS discontinued the use of the No Blank Space Rejection Policy with respect to Forms I-589, I-918, and I-918A.
3. Beginning on the Effective Date, all Forms I-589, I-918, and I-918A, must be submitted to USCIS and executed in accordance with 8 C.F.R. §§ 103.2, 208, and 214.14, as interpreted and implemented pursuant to the Regular Rejection Policy and the form instructions. USCIS reserves the right to reject any Form I-

2 589, I-918, and I-918A submission that meets the criteria of the Regular Rejection Policy.

3 4. Consistent with Section II.C.3., USCIS will not apply the No Blank Space
4 Rejection Policy to additional immigration forms, including, but not limited to:

- 5 a. Form I-914, Application for T Nonimmigrant Status;
6 b. Form I-360, Petition for Amerasian, Widow(er), or Special Immigrant;
7 and
8 c. Form I-751, Petition to Remove Conditions on Residence.

9 USCIS has removed references on its website to the No Blank Space Rejection
10 Policy criteria and, consistent with Section II.C.3., does not apply the No Blank
Space Rejection Policy to other immigration benefit requests.

11
12 D. Named Plaintiffs:

- 13 1. Within 15 business days of the Effective Date of this Settlement Agreement, USCIS 14 will reissue a receipt notice indicating that the “filing date” or “receipt date” is the 15 date on which the initial rejected Form I-589, I-918, or I-918A was received by USCIS for each of the named Plaintiffs.

16 E. Rejected forms that have not been resubmitted as of the Effective Date of this Settlement Agreement:

- 17 1. USCIS will permit an applicant who is covered by Section II.B. of this Settlement
18 Agreement and whose Form I-589, I-918, and/or I-918A was rejected due to the No
19 Blank Space Rejection Policy, to resubmit that same benefit request within 365 calendar days, beginning on the Effective Date of this Settlement Agreement.
20
21 2. The re-submitted complete benefit requests and documents required by this Settlement Agreement are to be provided to USCIS at the standard filing addresses
22 as provided at the Where to File tab on the USCIS filing address websites for Form
I-589 at <https://www.uscis.gov/I-589>, or Forms I-918 and I-918A at 23 <https://www.uscis.gov/I-918>, with “ATTN: VANGALA” in the address block.
24
25 3. When, within the time period specified in Section II.E.1., an affected applicant resubmits a properly completed Form I-589, I-918, or I-918A that was rejected under 26 the No Blank Space Rejection Policy or superseding rejection policy consistent with Section II C.3. and C.4., USCIS will accept either the form version that was in use at 27 that time or a subsequent version as approved by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB), deem the resubmitted benefit request as submitted properly, and issue a receipt notice dated as of the Original Receipt Date.

4. Accordingly:

- a. Aged-out applicants: USCIS will deem any applicant whose resubmitted benefit request is received under Section II.E.3., to have his or her age at filing determined by his or her biological age as of the Original Receipt Date, for the purposes of eligibility for themselves or derivative family members.
- b. USCIS will deem a timely submitted Form I-918B submitted with the original Form I-918 that was rejected pursuant to the No Blank Space Rejection Policy, to be valid at the time of resubmission except in instances where the certifying official withdraws the U nonimmigrant status certification.
- c. USCIS will recognize the Original Receipt Date of a rejected Form I-589 (as indicated by the date on the reissued receipt notice), as the date of filing for all purposes, including, but not limited to, determinations regarding employment authorization eligibility, the one-year filing deadline for asylum specified under Section 208(a)(2)(B) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), 8 U.S.C. § 1158(a)(2)(B), and any other legal provisions under 8 U.S.C. § 1158 as in effect at the time of the original filing.
- d. Any filing fees, including those for accompanying requests (such as Forms I-192, Application for Advance Permission to Enter as a Nonimmigrant, or I-765, Application for Employment Authorization), will be the fee that would have been required at the time of the Original Receipt Date.

5. Any person seeking to have Section II.E. apply to their benefit request must provide one of the following:

A copy of the notice issued by USCIS identifying their benefit request as having been rejected pursuant to the No Blank Space Rejection Policy, or other proof of the original rejected filing, such as a rejection notice or the page of the original benefit request with a USCIS stamp; or

A sworn statement of the applicant, their attorney or accredited representative, or another individual familiar with the circumstances of the original filing; or other evidence such as a delivery confirmation receipt.

F. Rejected forms that were resubmitted and received as of the Effective Date of this Settlement Agreement:

- 1. For any applicant who is covered by Section II.B. of this Settlement Agreement and whose Form I-589, I-918, and/or I-918A was rejected pursuant to the No Blank Space Rejection Policy and who, prior to the Effective Date, resubmitted the benefit request and received a receipt notice with a date later than the Original Receipt Date,

1 USCIS will reissue a new receipt notice using the Original Receipt Date once the
2 applicant has submitted the necessary documentation. See Section II.F.3. The
3 Original Receipt Date will be applied for all purposes, consistent with the treatment
4 provided for in Section II.E.2., E.3., and E.4.

5 2. Accordingly:

6 a. USCIS will deem any applicant who has aged out as a result of USCIS's
7 rejection of his or her benefit request pursuant to the No Blank Space Rejection
8 Policy, and whose resubmitted benefit request is receipted under Section II.F.1., 9 to have his or her age at filing determined by his or her biological age as of the 10 Original Receipt Date for the purposes of eligibility.

11 b. USCIS will deem a timely submitted Form I-918B, submitted with the original 12 rejected Form I-918, to be valid at the time of refiling except in instances where 13 the certifying official withdraws the U nonimmigrant status certification.

14 c. USCIS will recognize the Original Receipt Date of a rejected Form I-589 (as 15 indicated by the date on the reissued receipt notice), as the date of filing for all
16 purposes, including, but not limited to, determinations regarding employment 17 authorization eligibility, the one-year filing deadline for asylum specified under 18 8 U.S.C. § 1158(a)(2)(B), and any other legal provisions under 8 U.S.C. § 1158
19 as in effect at the time of the original filing.

20 3. Any person seeking to benefit from this provision must notify USCIS within 365
21 calendar days of the Effective Date and must provide:

22 a. The receipt number for the resubmitted benefit request; and

23 b. A copy of the notice issued by USCIS identifying their benefit request as 24 having been rejected pursuant to the No Blank Space Rejection Policy, or 25 other proof of the original rejected filing, such as a rejection notice or the 26 page of the original benefit request with a USCIS stamp; or a sworn 27 statement of the applicant, their attorney or accredited representative, or 28 another individual familiar with the circumstances of the original filing; or other evidence such as a delivery confirmation receipt.

29 4. Individuals who resubmitted their benefit request prior to the Effective Date and

G. Other general provisions:

1. USCIS will review its databases to identify and notify affected applicants individually or through their attorney of record or accredited representative, who may benefit from this Settlement Agreement, including:
  - a. Within 90 calendar days of the Effective Date, USCIS will send a notice to all individuals described by Section II.B., or their attorney of record as specified in its records, who USCIS was able to identify as having had a benefit request rejected pursuant to the No Blank Space Rejection Policy;
  - b. The notice shall specify where such applicants identified by USCIS in Section II.G.1.a. may submit materials to obtain the Original Receipt Date for their benefit requests, as outlined in Section II.E. and F.; and

2. This Settlement Agreement is specific to the No Blank Space Rejection Policy as applied to Forms I-589, I-918, and/or I-918A, in effect from October 7, 2019, to December 22, 2020. USCIS will not agree to limit its ability to implement new rejection regulations, policies, or practices in the U, T, Violence Against Women Act (VAWA), Special Immigrant Juvenile, Conditional Residence, asylum, or any other programs in the future, subject to the provision below in Section II.G.4.
3. Applicants who believe that their benefit requests were rejected after December 22, 2020, due to the application of the rescinded No Blank Space Rejection Policy, may request relief as provided under this Settlement Agreement by submitting the evidence required with their resubmitted benefit request or with their request for the Original Receipt Date. If USCIS determines that the original request was properly rejected, USCIS will:
  - i. Intake the request and provide a receipt date as of the date of the resubmission if the rejection reason has been corrected.
  - ii. Reject the request again if the rejection reason has not been corrected.

- 1
- 2 4. USCIS will not implement a No Blank Spaces Rejection Policy for Forms I-360, I-589,
- 3 I-751, I-914, I-914A, I-914B, I-918, or I-918A, or any other benefit request for a period
- 4 of three years from the Effective Date, subject to any changes to rejection criteria that
- 5 may be required by new statutory or regulatory authorities properly implemented by
- 6 USCIS and the DHS pursuant to the APA.

III. ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS

- A. USCIS agrees to pay attorneys' fees and costs to counsel for Plaintiffs in the amount of $130,000 ("Attorneys' Fee Settlement Amount").
- B. Subject to the foregoing provision, Defendants shall deliver the Attorneys' Fee Settlement Amount to Plaintiffs' Counsel by electronic funds transfer into Plaintiffs' Counsel's designated account. Plaintiffs' Counsel shall provide to Defendants all information necessary to accomplish the electronic funds transfer into that account within five business days of the Effective Date. Plaintiffs and their Counsel acknowledge that payment of the Attorneys' Fee Settlement Amount by Defendants or any of them in accordance with the wire instructions shall resolve all of Defendants' liability for such amount.
- C. Plaintiffs' Counsel is responsible fully for the allocation of and payment of the Attorneys' Fee Settlement Amount among themselves.
- D. Defendants' payment of the Attorneys' Fee Settlement Amount shall satisfy any claims by Plaintiffs' Counsel for attorney fees and costs related to and for the Action, including any fees and costs that may be incurred by Plaintiffs' Counsel in the course of monitoring the implementation of this Agreement.
