The American Flag

The American flag is an important symbol of the United States.

The flag has 13 red and white stripes.

The stripes represent the 13 original colonies.

There are 50 stars on the flag.

Each star represents a state.

Our national anthem is about the American flag.

The name of the national anthem is “The Star-Spangled Banner.”

The Star-Spangled Banner was written in 1814.
Saying the Pledge of Allegiance

We show loyalty to the flag when we say the Pledge of Allegiance.

This means that we promise to be loyal to the United States.

When we say it, we stand, turn toward the flag, and put our right hand over our heart.

I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands
one nation under God, indivisible with liberty and justice for all.

Here are some special words from the pledge.

The Statue of Liberty

The Statue of Liberty is a famous symbol of the United States. The Statue of Liberty is in New York Harbor on Liberty Island.

In 1886, France gave the statue to the United States. It was a symbol of friendship between France and the United States. Millions of immigrants saw the statue when they arrived in America. Today, the Statue of Liberty is a symbol of freedom and democracy.
National U.S. Holidays

There are ten national U.S. holidays.

On these holidays, many people do not work.

Most banks, schools, and government offices are closed on national holidays.

These holidays honor an important person or an event in U.S. history.

For example, the Declaration of Independence was signed on July 4.

Every year we celebrate Independence Day on July 4.
