Re: Organizations Ineligible for Approval of Immigrant and Nonimmigrant Petitions Under Section 212(n)(2)(C)(i) and (ii) of the Act.

The U.S. Department of Labor, in accordance with 20 CFR 655.855, has informed the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) that it has found the organizations named below to have engaged in certain actions rendering them subject to mandatory debarment under section 212(n)(2)(C)(i) and (ii) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended. Accordingly, no immigrant visa petitions and no H (excluding H-1B1), L, O or P-1 nonimmigrant visa petitions filed with respect to the named employer(s) indicated below shall be approved by USCIS for the period indicated below. For the period indicated, a petition may not be approved where the listed organization is the petitioner or employer. This ban does not affect petitions that were previously approved.

The table below summarizes all organizations currently subject to this ban, and the period for which the ban is in place with respect to that organization. There are thirty two organizations listed in this update of the table.

Should you have any questions concerning this issue, please contact Paola Rodriguez Hale, Adjudications Officer at 202-272-8417.
