Immigration Options for Afghan Nationals and Creating a USCIS Online Account

An Overview for Afghan Nationals

May 15, 2023
Materials presented today are for informational purposes only and are not legal advice. The information disseminated today and statements made by USCIS personnel are intended solely for the purpose of providing public outreach to the agency’s stakeholders about issues of mutual interest. It is not intended to, does not, and may not be relied upon to create any right or benefit.
Agenda

Immigration Options for Afghan Nationals Paroled into the United States
• Overview of re-parole for certain Afghan nationals
• Review of different immigration benefits
• Other benefits and services

How to Create an Online Account
• Why you should have an account
• Online account features
Opening Remarks
Overview

- Eligible Afghan nationals will be able to request re-parole through a new streamlined process online, and also request employment authorization online.
- If approved, Afghans will receive an additional two-year period of parole and employment authorization for an additional two years.
- Timeline to apply online: June 2023.
- Get Ready: Afghan nationals can prepare to apply for this new re-parole process online by creating a USCIS online account now.
Since July 2021, the U.S. government evacuated 97,000 Afghan nationals, U.S. citizens, and lawful permanent residents to the United States.

- Approximately 77,000 Afghans paroled into the United States.
- Afghans paroled into the United States can remain for up to two years and apply for employment authorization.
- Parole does not lead to immigration status (including lawful permanent resident status or U.S. citizenship).

Possible Immigration Pathways
Benefits of Asylum

• You may apply for asylum in you are in the U.S. and have been persecuted or fear that you will be persecuted in Afghanistan

• Individuals with pending asylum applications are not subject to removal.
  - Can apply for employment authorization 150 days after asylum application is filed.

• Principal asylees can file Form I-730, Refugee/Asylee Relative Petition, on behalf of their spouse and unmarried children under 21 years old.

For more information, visit uscis.gov/allieswelcome.

• Asylees can apply for lawful permanent resident status after one year.

• Lawful permanent residents can file a Form I-130, Petition for Alien Relative, on behalf of their:
  o Spouse;
  o Unmarried children under 21 years old; and o Unmarried son or daughter 21 years old or older.

• Eligible lawful permanent residents can apply for U.S. citizenship after 5 years.

• U.S. citizens can file Form I-130 on behalf of their spouse, sons and daughters, siblings, and parents.

For more information, visit uscis.gov/allieswelcome.
Benefits of Special Immigrant Visa Classification

Expediting processing of Form I-485, Application to Register Permanent Residence and Adjust Status, for Afghan nationals applying to adjust status to lawful permanent resident as a special immigrant.

- No fee to apply.

- SIV lawful permanent residents that had a spouse or child before adjusting to Special Immigrant status can request for spouses or unmarried children under 21 years old to join them in the U.S.
  - File Form I-824, Application for Action on an Approved Application or Petition.

- Eligible lawful permanent residents can apply for U.S. citizenship after five years.

- U.S. citizens can file Form I-130 for certain family members including siblings, sons and daughters, and parents.
Special Immigrant Visa Classification

• Old Process (until July 20, 2022)
  o Applied for Chief of Mission (COM) approval with Department of State (DOS) and submitted Form I-360, Petition for Amerasian, Widow(er), or Special Immigrant, to USCIS.

• New Process (starting on July 20, 2022)
  o New Afghan SIV applicants submit only the Form DS-157 with the documents required to apply for Chief of Mission Approval to DOS. Submitting Form I-360 is not required.

• Exception
  o Pending SIV applications with COM approvals as of July 20, 2022, must submit Form I-360 with USCIS.

For more information, visit uscis.gov/allieswelcome.
Temporary Protected Status (TPS)

- Afghan nationals can apply for TPS if they have been in the United States continuously since March 15, 2022.
- TPS is an employment authorized status.
- TPS does not automatically lead to any permanent immigration status.
- Registration period for Afghanistan TPS ends November 20, 2023.

For more information, visit uscis.gov/tps.
Family Reunification Efforts

- If you are a parolee, or paroled into the United States and later obtained TPS, your spouse and unmarried children under 21 may be eligible for admission to the United States as refugees.

- You can apply for family members by submitting Form DS-4317 to the Department of State.

- Reminder: For those who have or will soon secure asylum or a Green Card, such as through SIV classification, you may also apply for family reunification.

For more information visit the Department of State’s Family Reunification for Afghans page at state.gov/afghanistan-family-reunification.
Noncitizens may pursue multiple immigration benefits at the same time.
Re-parole for Afghan Nationals

Get Ready Phase

DHS will announce when the new re-parole and employment authorization application process for eligible Afghans will be available for both online and paper filings.

- To file for re-parole when it is ready online, create a USCIS online account at my.uscis.gov.

- Important note:
  - New re-parole and employment authorization process will be streamlined and fee exempted.

- The new re-parole process will be available in June.
General Requirements: Identification

Get Ready Phase

A copy of both sides of your current Employment Authorization Document, or a passport or Tazkira with English translation.

• If you submit a passport, include copies of the biographical page and ALL visas you have from any country.

• Do not submit a Tazkira unless you never gave this to USCIS before.

• If you have never given USCIS a Tazkira and cannot provide one, list your father’s and mother’s first names and explain why you cannot provide a Tazkira.

Tips to Avoid Immigration Scams

• Beware of individuals asking for personal information.
• USCIS does not routinely send emails about an approved immigration benefit.
• Email addresses from the U.S. government end in .gov.
• Do not transfer money or pay fees to an individual.
• Watch for identity theft.
• Learn about immigration attorneys and accredited representatives of a recognized organization.
