Policy Alert

SUBJECT: Fees for Submission of Benefit Requests

Purpose
U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) is issuing policy guidance in the USCIS Policy Manual regarding submission and acceptance of fees for immigration benefit requests.

Background
In general, requestors must include any required fees with the submission of a benefit request to USCIS.¹ Certain forms or categories of requestors may be exempt from fees. USCIS also has the regulatory authority to waive certain fees if the requestor is unable to pay the fee of the immigration benefit being sought.² USCIS is now updating its policies on fee waiver requests.

This guidance, contained in Volume 1, is effective December 2, 2019 and applies prospectively to fee waiver requests postmarked on or after that date. On that date, this policy update will supersede the guidance found in Chapters 10.9 and 10.10 of the Adjudicator’s Field Manual (AFM), related AFM appendices, and related policy memoranda. USCIS will accept requests filed on the previous or latest edition of the Request for Fee Waiver (Form I-912), or other ways of submitting requests as provided in the related AFM guidance, that are postmarked before December 2, 2019. For requests postmarked on or after that date, USCIS will only accept the latest edition of Form I-912 and will adjudicate such requests under the updated policy.³

Policy Highlights

- Establishes the eligibility criteria for fee waivers based on inability to pay: household income at or below 150 percent of the Federal Poverty Guidelines, or financial hardship.
- Establishes that the Request for Fee Waiver (Form I-912) must be submitted and written statements will no longer be accepted on or after December 2, 2019.
