DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Acting District Director, Miami, Florida, who certified his decision to the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) for review. The Acting District Director's decision will be affirmed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Peru who filed an application for adjustment of status to that of a lawful permanent resident under section 1 of the Cuban Adjustment Act (CAA) of November 2, 1966. The CAA provides, in pertinent part:

[T]he status of any alien who is a native or citizen of Cuba and who has been inspected and admitted or paroled into the United States subsequent to January 1, 1959 and has been physically present in the United States for at least one year, may be adjusted by the Attorney General, (now the Secretary of Homeland Security, (Secretary)), in his discretion and under such regulations as he may prescribe, to that of an alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence if the alien makes an application for such adjustment, and the alien is eligible to receive an immigrant visa and is admissible to the United States for permanent residence. The provisions of this Act shall be applicable to the spouse and child of any alien described in this subsection, regardless of their citizenship and place of birth, who are residing with such alien in the United States.

The Acting District Director determined that the applicant did not qualify for adjustment of status as the child of a lawful permanent resident who adjusted status under section 1 of the CAA of November 2, 1966. The Acting District Director, therefore, denied the application. See Acting District Director's Decision dated June 10, 2006.

The record reflects that on April 16, 2004, at Orlando, Florida, the applicant's mother married [REDACTED], a native and citizen of Cuba. Based on that marriage, on April 29, 2004, the applicant filed for adjustment of status under section 1 of the CAA of November 2, 1966.

The Acting District Director, denied the application after determining that the applicant's Cuban stepfather, Mr. [REDACTED] was denied permanent residence under section 1 of the CAA, after being found inadmissible under section 212(a)(2)(A)(i)(I) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(2)(A)(i)(I), for having been convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude, section 212(a)(2)(A)(i)(II) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(2)(A)(i)(II), for having been convicted of a violation relating to a controlled substance and section 212(a)(2)(C) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(2)(C), as an illicit trafficker in any controlled substance. The AAO affirmed the Acting District Director's decision to deny Mr. [REDACTED] application.

Accordingly, the applicant is ineligible for adjustment of status to permanent residence, pursuant to section 1 of the CAA of November 2, 1966. The decision of the Acting District Director to deny the application will be affirmed.

ORDER: The Acting District Director's decision is affirmed.
