IN RE:

Applicant:

APPLICATION: Application for Permanent Residence Pursuant to Section 1 of the Cuban Adjustment Act of November 2, 1966 (P.L. 89-732)

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the District Director, Miami, Florida, who certified her decision to the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) for review. The District Director's decision will be affirmed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Cuba who filed this application for adjustment of status to that of a lawful permanent resident under Section 1 of the Cuban Adjustment Act (CAA) of November 2, 1966. The CAA provides, in part:

[T]he status of any alien who is a native or citizen of Cuba and who has been inspected and admitted or paroled into the United States subsequent to January 1, 1959 and has been physically present in the United States for at least one year, may be adjusted by the Attorney General, (now the Secretary of Homeland Security, (Secretary)), in his discretion and under such regulations as he may prescribe, to that of an alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence if the alien makes an application for such adjustment, and the alien is eligible to receive an immigrant visa and is admissible to the United States for permanent residence.

The District Director found the applicant inadmissible to the United States because he falls within the purview of Section 212(a)(2) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(2). The District Director, therefore, concluded that the applicant was ineligible for adjustment of status and denied the application accordingly. See District Director's Decision, dated October 9, 2007.

Section 212(a)(2) of the Act states in pertinent part:

(A) Conviction of certain crimes.-

(i) [A]ny alien convicted of, or who admits having committed, or who admits committing acts which constitute the essential elements of-

(I) a crime involving moral turpitude . . . or an attempt or conspiracy to commit such a crime . . . is inadmissible.

(II) a violation of (or a conspiracy or attempt to violate) any law or regulation of a State, the United States, or a foreign country relating to a controlled substance (as defined in section 102 of the Controlled Substances Act (21 U.S.C. 802)) . . . is inadmissible.

(B) Multiple criminal convictions.—Any alien convicted of 2 or more offenses (other than purely political offenses), regardless of whether the conviction was in a single trial or whether the offenses arose from a single scheme of misconduct and regardless of whether the offenses involved moral turpitude, for which the aggregate sentences to confinement were 5 years or more is inadmissible.

(C) Controlled substance traffickers.-

any aliens who the consular officer of the Attorney General knows or has reasons to believe-

(i) is or has been an illicit trafficker in any controlled substance or in any listed chemical (as defined in section 102 of the Controlled Substances Act (21 U.S.C. 802)), or is or has been a knowing aider, abettor, assister, conspirator, or colluder with others in the illicit trafficking in any such controlled or listed substance or chemical, or endeavored to do so; or.....is inadmissible.

Section 212(h) of the Act provides, in pertinent part:

(h) The Attorney General [Secretary of Homeland Security] may, in his discretion, waive the application of subparagraph (A)(i)(I), (B), (D), and (E) of subsection (a)(2) and subparagraph (A)(i)(II) of such subsection insofar as it relates to a single offense of simple possession of 30 grams or less of marijuana if—in the case of an immigrant who is the spouse, parent, son, or daughter of a citizen of the United States or an alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence if it is established to the satisfaction of the Attorney General [Secretary] that the alien's denial of admission would result in extreme hardship to the United States citizen or lawfully resident spouse, parent, son, or daughter of such alien . . .

On August 11, 1980 the applicant was found guilty of assault under 18 U.S.C. 113(e). Judgment and Probation/Commitment Order, United States District Court, Western District of Arkansas. The applicant was sentenced to 30 days, 22 days suspended, 8 days to serve. Id. On February 27, 1987 the applicant was arrested for the Sale of Cocaine. Arrest Record, Sheriff's Office, Palm Beach County, Florida. The applicant subsequently pled guilty to Possession of Cocaine with Intent to Sell. Criminal History Report, History Purge List, dated September 1, 1992. The applicant received a sentence of four months. Id. On April 30, 1987 the applicant was convicted of Sale of Cocaine under Florida Statute 893.13(1)(a) and for Use of a Firearm During Commission of a Felony under Florida Statute 790.07(2). Judgment, Circuit Court, Fifteenth Judicial Circuit, Palm Beach County, Florida. The applicant received a sentence of four months to run concurrently with the sentence he received for his conviction of Possession of Cocaine with Intent to Sell. Sentence report, Circuit Court, Fifteenth Judicial Circuit, Palm Beach County, Florida, dated April 30, 1987.

On notice of certification, the applicant was offered an opportunity to submit evidence in opposition to the District Director's findings. The applicant did not submit any additional brief or written statement. Based on his controlled substance convictions, the applicant is subject to the provisions of sections 212(a)(2)(A)(i)(II) and 212(a)(2)(C) of the Act for which no waivers are available.

The applicant is ineligible for adjustment of status to permanent residence, pursuant to Section 1 of the CAA of November 2, 1966. The decision of the District Director to deny the application will be affirmed.

ORDER: The District Director's decision is affirmed.
