Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Field Office Director, Washington, D.C. and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of the Philippines who is seeking to adjust her status to that of lawful permanent resident under section 13 of the Act of 1957 ("Section 13"), Pub. L. No. 85-316, 71 Stat. 642, as modified, 95 Stat. 1611, 8 U.S.C. § 1255b, as the spouse of an alien who performed diplomatic or semi-diplomatic duties under section 101(a)(15)(A)(ii) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(A)(ii).

The field office director denied the application for adjustment of status of the applicant's spouse after determining that the applicant's spouse had failed to demonstrate that compelling reasons prevent his return to the Philippines and had failed to establish that his official status had been terminated prior to filing the Form I-485, Application to Register Permanent Resident or Adjust Status. The field office director denied the applicant's adjustment application on the basis of her spouse's ineligibility for benefits under Section 13. Counsel has appealed both decisions.

In a separate decision, the AAO dismissed the appeal of the applicant's spouse on the grounds that he failed to establish that his official status had been terminated prior to filing the Form I-485 Application and that compelling reasons prevent his return to the Philippines as required under Section 13. As the applicant's eligibility for adjustment under Section 13 derives from the eligibility of her spouse, and the applicant has not asserted compelling reasons separate from those claimed by her spouse, the applicant is also ineligible for adjustment of status.

For the reasons discussed above, the AAO finds that the applicant is not eligible for adjustment under Section 13. Pursuant to section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1361, the burden of proof is upon the applicant to establish that she is eligible for adjustment of status. The applicant has failed to meet that burden. Accordingly, the appeal will be dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
