DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Director (director), National Benefits Center. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Pakistan who is seeking to adjust her status to that of a lawful permanent resident under section 13 of the Act of 1957 ("Section 13"), Pub. L. No. 85-316, 71 Stat. 642, as amended, 95 Stat. 1611, 8 U.S.C. § 1255b, as the derivative dependent child of an alien who performed diplomatic or semi-diplomatic duties under section 101(a)(15)(A)(ii) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(A)(ii).

The director denied the Form I-485, Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status after determining that the applicant's father had failed to demonstrate that compelling reasons prevent his and his family's return to Pakistan. The director also noted that the U.S. Department of State issued its opinion on January 17, 2013, recommending that the applicant's father's adjustment of status application be denied because he has failed to present compelling reasons why he cannot return to Pakistan. The director denied the applicant's adjustment of status application on the basis of her father's ineligibility for benefits under Section 13. Decision of the Director, dated February 1, 2013.

In a separate decision, the AAO concurred with the director's decision and dismissed the appeal finding that the applicant's father had failed to establish that compelling reasons prevent his and his family's return to Pakistan. As the applicant's eligibility for adjustment under Section 13 derives from the eligibility of her father, and the applicant has not provided new facts or evidence separate from those claimed by her father, the AAO finds that the applicant is also ineligible for adjustment of status.

For the reasons discussed above, the AAO finds that the applicant is not eligible for adjustment under Section 13. Pursuant to section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1361, the burden of proof is upon the applicant to establish that she is eligible for adjustment of status. The applicant has failed to meet that burden. Accordingly, the appeal will be dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
