Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The Director, Texas Service Center, denied the employment-based immigrant visa petition. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The AAO will reject the appeal.

Under the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 292.4(a), as well as the instructions to the Form I-290B Notice of Appeal, if an attorney files an appeal with the Administrative Appeals Office, the filing must include a newly executed Form G-28, Notice of Entry of Appearance as Attorney or Representative, even if the record includes an older form from the same attorney. This regulation applies to all appeals filed on or after March 4, 2010. See 75 Fed. Reg. 5225 (February 2, 2010).

The petitioner filed Form I-140 on December 17, 2009, with Form G-28 signed by counsel on December 9, 2009. The director denied the petition on April 29, 2010. Counsel filed the appeal on June 4, 2010, but the filing did not include a new Form G-28 as required.

Under the regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(v)(A)(2), if an appeal is otherwise properly filed without a Form G-28, then USCIS must contact the attorney and attempt to obtain the required form. Here, however, as the appeal was not otherwise properly filed, the AAO will not request a Form G-28, and the petitioner will be considered as self-represented.

In order to properly file an appeal, the regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(i) provides that the affected party must file the complete appeal within 30 days of after service of the unfavorable decision. If the decision was mailed, the appeal must be filed within 33 days. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.5a(b). The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 1.1(h) explains that when the last day of a period falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the period shall run until the end of the next day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday. The date of filing is not the date of mailing, but the date of actual receipt. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(a)(7)(i).

Again, the record indicates that the director issued the decision on April 29, 2010. It is noted that the director properly gave notice to the petitioner that she had 33 days to file the appeal. Although counsel dated the appeal on May 27, 2010, it was received by the director on Friday, June 4, 2010, 36 days after the decision was issued. Accordingly, the appeal was untimely filed.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(v)(B)(2) states that, if an untimely appeal meets the requirements of a motion to reopen or a motion to reconsider, the appeal must be treated as a motion, and a decision must be made on the merits of the case. The official having jurisdiction over a motion is the official who made the last decision in the proceeding, in this case the Director of the Texas Service Center. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(1)(ii).

Here, as the brief in this matter was submitted directly to the AAO in accordance with 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(viii), it is apparent that the director did not have an opportunity to fully review the late appeal to determine whether it meets the requirements of either a motion to reopen or a motion to reconsider. Therefore, the matter will be returned to the director. If the director determines that the late appeal meets the requirements of a motion, the motion shall be granted and a new decision will be issued.

As the appeal was untimely filed, the appeal must be rejected.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.
