DISCUSSION: The approval of the employment-based immigrant visa petition was revoked by the Director, Texas Service Center, on March 10, 2011. The director dismissed the petitioner's motion to reopen on May 13, 2011, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The petitioner seeks classification as an employment-based immigrant pursuant to section 203(b)(1)(A) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(1)(A), as an alien of extraordinary ability as a ship modeler. On Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion, counsel indicated in Part 2 that he was filing an appeal and his "brief and/or additional evidence will be submitted to the AAO within 30 days." Moreover, counsel indicated in Part 3 that he would "submit supporting documents along with a legal brief within 30 days." Finally, in counsel's accompanying cover letter, he "request[ed] 30 days before we can file a legal brief along with the supporting documents." Counsel dated the appeal on June 13, 2011. As of this date, approximately nine months later, the AAO has received nothing further. Accordingly, the record is considered complete as it now stands.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v), an appeal shall be summarily dismissed if the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal. Counsel here has not specifically addressed the reasons stated for revocation and has not provided any additional evidence. As counsel for the petitioner has failed to provide any specific statement or argument regarding the basis of his appeal, the appeal must be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
