DISCUSSION: The employment-based immigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Nebraska Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner is an IT consulting business. It seeks to employ the beneficiary permanently in the United States as a programmer QA analyst. The petition is accompanied by an ETA Form 9089, Application for Permanent Employment Certification (labor certification), approved by the Department of Labor (DOL).

The director determined that the ETA Form 9089 failed to demonstrate that the job requires a professional holding an advanced degree or the equivalent of an alien of exceptional ability and, therefore, the beneficiary cannot be found qualified for classification as a member of the professions holding an advanced degree or an alien of exceptional ability. 8 C.F.R. § 204.5(k)(4). The director denied the petition accordingly.

The petitioner's director stated in a letter dated October 25, 2011, "Because of the highly specialized nature of this position, this is an EB-3 position." The petitioner's representative further stated that as a result of the director's denial, the petitioner has re-filed a petition under an "EB-3 category." Although counsel stated on the Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal, dated October 26, 2011 that she would be filing a brief within 30 days of the appeal, to date there has been no brief filed.

The record shows that the appeal is properly filed and timely. The procedural history in this case is documented by the record and incorporated into the decision. Further elaboration of the procedural history will be made only as necessary.

In pertinent part, section 203(b)(2) of the Immigration and Naturalization Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(2), provides immigrant classification to members of the professions holding advanced degrees or their equivalent and whose services are sought by an employer in the United States. An advanced degree is a United States academic or professional degree or a foreign equivalent degree above the baccalaureate level. 8 C.F.R. § 204.5(k)(2). The regulation further states: "A United States baccalaureate degree or a foreign equivalent degree followed by at least five years of progressive experience in the specialty shall be considered the equivalent of a master's degree. If a doctoral degree is customarily required by the specialty, the alien must have a United States doctorate or a foreign equivalent degree." Id.

Here, the Form I-140 was filed on September 22, 2011. On Part 2.d. of the Form I-140, the petitioner indicated that it was filing the petition for a member of the professions holding an advanced degree or an alien of exceptional ability.

The AAO conducts appellate review on a de novo basis. See Soltane v. DOJ, 381 F.3d 143, 145 (3d Cir. 2004). The AAO considers all pertinent evidence in the record, including new evidence properly submitted upon appeal.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 204.5(k)(4) states in pertinent part that "[t]he job offer portion of an individual labor certification, Schedule A application, or Pilot Program application must demonstrate that the job requires a professional holding an advanced degree or the equivalent of an alien of exceptional ability."

In this case, the job offer portion of the ETA Form 9089 indicates at part H.8 (the acceptable alternative combination of education and experience) that the minimum level of education required for the position is a bachelor's degree and five years of experience in the job offered. It is further explained in part H.14 that the employer will also accept a foreign three-year degree in lieu of a U.S. bachelor's degree. Accordingly, the job offer portion of the ETA Form 9089 does not require a professional holding an advanced degree or the equivalent of an alien of exceptional ability because the minimum education required is less than a U.S. bachelor's degree or a foreign degree equivalent. However, on the Form I-140 the petitioner requested classification as a member of the professions holding an advanced degree or an alien of exceptional ability. The minimum requirement found in the ETA Form 9089 falls below the minimum permitted for an advanced degree professional. 8 C.F.R. § 204.5(k)(2). To the extent the petitioner is requesting a change to the professional category; a petitioner may not make material changes to a petition in an effort to make a deficient petition conform to USCIS requirements. See Matter of Izummi, 22 I&N Dec. 169, 176 (Assoc. Comm. 1988).

The evidence submitted does not establish that the ETA Form 9089 requires a professional holding an advanced degree or the equivalent of an alien of exceptional ability, and the appeal must be dismissed.

The burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361. The petitioner has not met that burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
