Enclosed please find the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All of the documents related to this matter have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Please be advised that any further inquiry that you might have concerning your case must be made to that office.

DISCUSSION: The preference visa petition was denied by the Director, Nebraska Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner filed a Form I-140, Immigrant Petition for Alien Worker, which sought to employ the beneficiary permanently in the United States as its chief financial officer. As required by statute, the Form I-140 was accompanied by an ETA Form 9089, Application for Permanent Employment Certification, approved by the United States Department of Labor. The director determined the petitioner had not established it had the continuing ability to pay the beneficiary the proffered wage beginning on the priority date of the visa petition.

The AAO issued a Request for Evidence (RFE) on August 13, 2012 requesting additional financial evidence from the petitioner.

In the RFE, the AAO alerted the petitioner that failure to respond within forty-five days would result in dismissal since the AAO could not substantively adjudicate the appeal without the information requested. The failure to submit requested evidence that precludes a material line of inquiry shall be grounds for denying the petition. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(b)(14).

Because the petitioner failed to respond to the RFE, the AAO is dismissing the appeal.

The burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361. The petitioner has not met that burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
