Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The Director, Texas Service Center, denied the immigrant visa petition. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected as untimely filed.

In order to properly file an appeal, the regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(i) provides that the affected party must file the complete appeal within 30 days after service of the unfavorable decision with the office where the unfavorable decision was made. If the decision was mailed, the appeal must be filed within 33 days. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.5a(b).

The record indicates that the director issued the decision on December 16, 2005. The director properly gave notice to the petitioner that it had 33 days to file the appeal. The petitioner initially attempted to file the appeal on January 9, 2006. The appeal, however, was rejected and returned to the petitioner on January 9, 2006 based on failure to properly sign the appeal form in accordance with 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(a)(2), which requires that an applicant or petitioner must sign its application or petition. The petitioner resubmitted the appeal, which was received and receipted on January 23, 2006, or 38 days after the decision was issued. As the appeal was initially defective because it was submitted without signature, and subsequently resubmitted and filed on January 23, 2006, the appeal was untimely filed. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(a)(7) (receipt date is assigned when filing is properly completed).

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(v)(B)(2) states that, if an untimely appeal meets the requirements of a motion to reopen or a motion to reconsider, the appeal must be treated as a motion, and a decision must be made on the merits of the case. The official having jurisdiction over a motion is the official who made the last decision in the proceeding, in this case the service center director. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(1)(ii). The director declined to treat the late appeal as a motion and forwarded the matter to the AAO.

As the appeal was untimely filed, the appeal must be rejected.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected as untimely filed.
