John F. Grissom
Acting Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The employment-based immigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Texas Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The petitioner seeks to classify the beneficiary pursuant to section 203(b)(3) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(3) as a professional. The director determined that the petitioner failed to demonstrate that the beneficiary met the educational requirements of the labor certification at the time of filing of the labor certification, December 1, 2003.

On appeal, counsel stated:

Additional documentations and explanations will be submitted, which establishes that the beneficiary has the necessary qualifications as mentioned in the labor certification, pertaining to his educational requirements.

Counsel stated that a brief and/or additional evidence would be submitted to the AAO within 30 days. The appeal was filed on March 3, 2008. As of this date, more than 15 months later, the AAO has received nothing further.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(vii) states in pertinent part:

Additional time to submit a brief. The affected party may make a written request to the AAO for additional time to submit a brief. The AAO may, for good cause shown, allow the affected party additional time to submit one.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(viii) states in pertinent part:

Where to submit supporting brief if additional time is granted. If the AAO grants additional time, the affected party shall submit the brief directly to the AAO.

Counsel, here, did not request any additional time beyond the 30 days listed on Form I-290B.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v), an appeal shall be summarily dismissed if the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

Counsel here has not specifically identified any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact and has not provided any additional evidence on appeal. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
