Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The employment-based immigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Texas Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The petitioner seeks to classify the beneficiary pursuant to section 203(b)(3) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(3) as a skilled worker. The director determined that the petitioner failed to demonstrate that it had the ability to pay the beneficiary the proffered wage and that the petitioner failed to demonstrate that the beneficiary possessed the requisite education for the position, both beginning on the priority date.

On appeal, counsel merely stated that U.S. Citizenship and Immigration services (USCIS) incorrectly denied the petition and that the petitioner had the ability to pay and that the beneficiary possessed the requisite education.

Counsel submitted the appeal on August 10, 2009. As of this date, approximately nine months later, the AAO has received nothing further.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v), an appeal shall be summarily dismissed if the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

Counsel here has not specifically addressed the reasons stated for denial and has not provided any additional evidence. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
