DISCUSSION: The employment-based immigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Nebraska Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The petitioner seeks to classify the beneficiary pursuant to section 203(b)(3) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(3) as an unskilled worker. The director determined that the beneficiary had entered into a marriage with her spouse for the purpose of evading immigration laws.

On appeal, counsel for the petitioner stated that the beneficiary did, in fact, have a bona fide marriage, but that the beneficiary ended it because her husband was abusive. Counsel indicated that the petitioner would submit a brief and/or additional evidence.

Counsel submitted the appeal on October 15, 2008. As of this date, approximately two years later, the AAO has received nothing further.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v), an appeal shall be summarily dismissed if the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

Counsel here has not specifically addressed the reasons stated for denial and has not provided any additional evidence. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
