Enclosed please find the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All of the documents related to this matter have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Please be advised that any further inquiry that you might have concerning your case must be made to that office.

The specific requirements for filing such a request can be found at 8 C.F.R. § 103.5. Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The Director, [REDACTED] Service Center, denied the immigrant visa petition. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected as untimely filed. The AAO will return the matter to the director for consideration as a motion to reopen.

In order to properly file an appeal, the regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(i) provides that the affected party must file the complete appeal within 30 days after service of the unfavorable decision. If the decision was mailed, the appeal must be filed within 33 days. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.5a(b). The date of filing is not the date of mailing, but the date of actual receipt. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(a)(7)(i).

The record indicates that the director issued the decision on November 2, 2010. It is noted that the director properly gave notice to the petitioner that it had 33 days to file the appeal. Counsel failed to initially submit the appeal with the correct fee and thus it was not properly filed with the director until December 16, 2010, ten days beyond the December 6, 2010 deadline, and 44 days after the director's decision was issued.¹ Accordingly, the appeal was untimely filed. The director erroneously treated the appeal as timely and forwarded the matter to the AAO.

Neither the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act) nor the pertinent regulations grant the AAO authority to extend the 33-day time limit for filing an appeal. As the appeal was untimely filed, the appeal must be rejected. Nevertheless, the regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(v)(B)(2) states that, if an untimely appeal meets the requirements of a motion to reopen or a motion to reconsider, the appeal must be treated as a motion, and a decision must be made on the merits of the case.

A motion to reopen must state the new facts to be proved in the reopened proceeding and be supported by affidavits or other documentary evidence. 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(2). A motion to reconsider must state the reasons for reconsideration and be supported by any pertinent precedent decisions to establish that the decision was based on an incorrect application of law or United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) policy. A motion to reconsider a decision on an application or petition must, when filed, also establish that the decision was incorrect based on the evidence of record at the time of the initial decision. 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(3). A motion that does not meet applicable requirements shall be dismissed. 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(4).

¹ Title 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(a)(7)(i) requires the director to reject any petition or application filed with the incorrect filing fee. Likewise, filings, which are rejected because they are submitted with incorrect filing fees, do not retain filing dates. Therefore, as this filing did not retain a filing date, the actual filing date for the Form I-290B December 16, 2010 as noted above. USCIS which includes both the Texas Service Center and the AAO, has no authority to accept an untimely appeal that fails to hold a timely filing date due to the submission of an incorrect filing fee. USCIS is compelled to reject such an appeal. Title 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(v)(B)(1) states in pertinent part that "[a]n appeal which is not timely filed within the time allowed must be rejected as improperly filed." Therefore, under the regulations, USCIS lacks the authority to consider the untimely appeal.

Here, the untimely appeal meets the requirements of a motion to reopen because of the evidence submitted relevant to the corporation, [REDACTED] which bears the same federal identification number (FEIN) as the petitioner. The official having jurisdiction over a motion is the official who made the last decision in the proceeding, in this case the service center director. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(1)(ii). Therefore, the director must consider the untimely appeal as a motion to reopen and render a new decision accordingly.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected. The matter is returned to the director for consideration as a motion to reopen.
