DISCUSSION: The preference visa petition was denied by the Director, Texas Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner is a restaurant. It seeks to employ the beneficiary permanently in the United States as a dining room manager. As required by statute, the petition is accompanied by an ETA Form 9089, Application for Permanent Employment Certification, approved by the United States Department of Labor (DOL). The director determined that the petitioner had not established that it had the continuing ability to pay the beneficiary the proffered wage beginning on the priority date of the visa petition. The director denied the petition accordingly.

The AAO issued a Request For Evidence (RFE) on September 28, 2011 seeking information necessary for adjudication of the petitioner's claim on the issue of the petitioner's ability to pay the proffered wage, as well as clarification related to the beneficiary's experience.

The petitioner was informed that it had 45 days to respond to the RFE and that if it did not respond the appeal would be dismissed without further discussion. The petitioner was further informed that a failure to respond would preclude a material line of inquiry and would be grounds for denying the petition. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(b)(14). To date, more than 45 days after the RFE was issued, no response to the RFE has been received. The appeal shall be dismissed.

The burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361. The petitioner has not met that burden and has failed to respond to a request for evidence which precludes a material line of inquiry concerning the merits of the petition.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
