INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. Please note that all documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Please also note that any further inquiry must be made to that office.

Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The employment-based preference visa petition was initially approved by the Director, Nebraska Service Center. On January 30, 2008, the director served the petitioner with notice of intent to revoke the approval of the petition (NOIR).<sup>1</sup> In a Notice of Revocation (NOR), the director ultimately revoked the approval of the Immigrant Petition for Alien Worker (Form I-140). The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected as untimely filed. The AAO will return the matter to the director for consideration as a motion to reopen and reconsider.

In order to properly file an appeal, the regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 205.2(d) provides that the affected party must file the complete appeal within 15 days after service of the decision to revoke the approval. If the decision was mailed, the appeal must be filed within 18 days. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.5a(b). The date of filing is not the date of mailing, but the date of actual receipt. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(a)(7)(i).

The record indicates that the director issued the decision to revoke the approval on July 22, 2008.<sup>2</sup> Although counsel dated the appeal August 18, 2008, it was received by the director on August 20, 2008, 29 days after the decision was issued. Accordingly, the appeal of the decision revoking the petition's approval was untimely filed.

Neither the Act nor the pertinent regulations grant the AAO authority to extend the 18-day time limit for filing an appeal. As the appeal was untimely filed, the appeal must be rejected. Nevertheless, the regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(v)(B)(2) states that, if an untimely appeal meets the requirements of a motion to reopen or a motion to reconsider, the appeal must be treated as a motion, and a decision must be made on the merits of the case.

A motion to reopen must state the new facts to be proved in the reopened proceeding and be supported by affidavits or other documentary evidence. 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(2). A motion to reconsider must state the reasons for reconsideration and be supported by any pertinent precedent decisions to establish that the decision was based on an incorrect application of law or United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) policy. A motion to reconsider a decision on an application or petition must, when filed, also establish that the decision was incorrect based on the evidence of record at the time of the initial decision. 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(3). A motion that does not meet applicable requirements shall be dismissed. 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(4).

<sup>1</sup> Although this notice was labeled a "decision," the Notice clearly states that, "pursuant to Title 8, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 205.2, we hereby serve notice upon you of our intent to revoke the approval of the petition. You are hereby granted thirty days in which to submit to this office evidence in support of the petition and in opposition to the revocation."

<sup>2</sup> It is noted that the director improperly termed this a decision rather than a revocation and gave notice to the petitioner that it had 30 days to file the appeal. However, the regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 205.2(d) is clear that the affected party must file the complete appeal within 15 days after service of the decision to revoke the approval, and neither the Immigration and Nationality Act nor the pertinent regulations grant the AAO authority to extend the 18-day time limit for filing an appeal.

The matter will therefore be returned to the director. If the director determines that the late appeal meets the requirements of a motion, the motion shall be granted and a new decision will be issued.

As the appeal was untimely filed, the appeal must be rejected.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.
