DISCUSSION: The Director, Nebraska Service Center, denied the employment-based immigrant visa petition, which is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner is a non-profit religious organization. It seeks to employ the beneficiary permanently in the United States as a church music director pursuant to sections 203(b)(3)(A)(i) and (ii) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(3)(A)(i) and (ii). As required by statute, a labor certification accompanied the petition.

Upon reviewing the petition, the director determined that the petitioner failed to demonstrate that the beneficiary satisfied the minimum level of education stated on the labor certification. Specifically, the director concluded that the beneficiary's three-year bachelor's degree in church music from an unaccredited theological seminary could not be accepted as a foreign equivalent degree to a U.S. bachelor's degree in music/church. The petitioner appealed the director's decision to the AAO

The AAO issued a Request for Evidence (RFE) on May 31, 2011 instructing the petitioner to submit additional evidence of:<sup>1</sup>

- The petitioner's intent concerning the actual minimum educational requirements of the proffered position, as that intent was expressed to the U.S. Department of Labor during the labor certification process;
- The petitioner's ability to pay the proffered wage; and
- The beneficiary's qualifying employment experience.

The RFE notified the petitioner that failure to respond would result in dismissal since the AAO could not substantively adjudicate the appeal without the information requested. The failure to submit requested evidence that precludes a material line of inquiry shall be grounds for denying the petition. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(b)(14).

To date, the AAO has not received a response to the RFE. Because the petitioner failed to respond to the RFE, the AAO is dismissing the appeal.

The burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361. The petitioner has not met that burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
