DISCUSSION: The Director, Nebraska Service Center (director), denied the immigrant visa petition. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner describes itself as a hospital. It seeks to permanently employ the beneficiary in the United States as a registered nurse. The petitioner requests classification of the beneficiary as a professional or skilled worker pursuant to section 203(b)(3)(A) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(3)(A).[1]

The director denied the petition because the petitioner failed to provide notice of the filing of an ETA Form 9089, Application for Permanent Employment Certification, in accordance with 20 C.F.R. § 656.10(d)(1).

The record shows that the appeal is properly filed, timely, and makes an allegation of error in law or fact. The procedural history in this case is documented by the record and incorporated into the decision. Further elaboration of the procedural history will be made only as necessary.

The AAO conducts appellate review on a de novo basis. See Soltane v. DOJ, 381 F.3d 143, 145 (3d Cir. 2004). The AAO considers all pertinent evidence in the record, including new evidence properly submitted upon appeal.[2]

The petition is for a Schedule A occupation. A Schedule A occupation is an occupation codified at 20 § C.F.R. 656.5(a) for which the U.S. Department of Labor (DOL) has determined that there are not sufficient U.S. workers who are able, willing, qualified and available and that the wages and working conditions of similarly employed U.S. workers will not be adversely affected by the employment of aliens in such occupations. The current list of Schedule A occupations includes professional nurses and physical therapists. Id.

Petitions for Schedule A occupations do not require the petitioner to test the labor market and obtain a certified ETA Form 9089 from the DOL prior to filing the petition with U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS). Instead, the petition is filed directly with USCIS with a duplicate uncertified ETA Form 9089. See 8 C.F.R. §§ 204.5(a)(2) and (l)(3)(i); see also 20 C.F.R. § 656.15.

[1] Section 203(b)(3)(A)(i) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(3)(A)(i), grants preference classification to qualified immigrants who are capable of performing skilled labor (requiring at least two years training or experience), not of a temporary nature, for which qualified workers are not available in the United States. Section 203(b)(3)(A)(ii) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(3)(A)(ii), grants preference classification to qualified immigrants who hold baccalaureate degrees and are members of the professions.

[2] The submission of additional evidence on appeal is allowed by the instructions to the Form I-290B, which are incorporated into the regulations by 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(a)(1). See Matter of Soriano, 19 I&N Dec. 764 (BIA 1988).

If the Schedule A occupation is a professional nurse, the petitioner must establish that the beneficiary has a Certificate from the Commission on Graduates of Foreign Nursing Schools (CGFNS); a permanent, full and unrestricted license to practice professional nursing in the state of intended employment; or passed the National Council Licensure Examination for Registered Nurses (NCLEX-RN). See 20 C.F.R. § 656.5(a)(2).

Petitions for Schedule A occupations must also contain evidence establishing that the employer provided its U.S. workers with notice of the filing of an ETA Form 9089 (Notice) as prescribed by 20 C.F.R. § 656.10(d), and a valid prevailing wage determination (PWD) obtained in accordance with 20 C.F.R. § 656.40 and 20 C.F.R. § 656.41. See 20 C.F.R. § 656.15(b)(2).

For the Notice requirement, the employer must provide notice of the filing of an ETA Form 9089 to any bargaining representative for the occupation, or, if there is no bargaining representative, by posted notice to its employees at the location of the intended employment. See 20 C.F.R. § 656.10(d)(1).

The regulation at 20 C.F.R. § 656.10(d)(3) states that the Notice shall:

(i) State that the notice is being provided as a result of the filing of an application for permanent alien labor certification for the relevant job opportunity;
(ii) State any person may provide documentary evidence bearing on the application to the Certifying Officer of the Department of Labor;
(iii) Provide the address of the appropriate Certifying Officer; and
(iv) Be provided between 30 and 180 days before filing the application.

Notices for Schedule A occupations must also contain a description of the job offered and the rate of pay. See 20 C.F.R. § 656.10(d)(6).

In cases where there is no bargaining representative, the Notice must be posted for at least 10 consecutive business days, and it must be clearly visible and unobstructed while posted. 20 C.F.R. § 656.10(d)(1)(ii). The Notice must be posted in a conspicuous place where the employer's U.S. workers can readily read it on their way to or from their place of employment. Id. In addition, the Notice must be published "in any and all in-house media, whether electronic or printed, in accordance with the normal procedures used for the recruitment of similar positions in the employer's organization." Id. The satisfaction of the Notice requirement may be documented by "providing a copy of the posted notice and stating where it was posted, and by providing copies of all the in-house media" used to distribute the Notice. Id.

In the instant case, there is no evidence in the record of a bargaining representative for the occupation. The Notice in the record is deficient as it was posted from January 15, 2007 to January 29, 2007, and was therefore not completed between 30 and 180 days of filing. The petitioner also failed to address whether or not the Notice was published in any and all in-house media.

The submitted posting notice is deficient as it was posted January 15, 2007 to January 29, 2007. The petition was filed February 12, 2007. Therefore the posting was not completed more than 30 days prior to filing.

Further, the posting notice description of the position indicates that 2 years of experience in in the job offered is required. The submitted Form ETA 9089 indicates that no experience is required. The posting notice description and experience requirements on the Form ETA 9089 are inconsistent. It is incumbent on the petitioner to resolve any inconsistencies in the record by independent objective evidence, and attempts to explain or reconcile such inconsistencies, absent competent objective evidence pointing to where the truth, in fact, lies, will not suffice. Matter of Ho, 19 I&N Dec. 582, 591591-592 (BIA 1988). The requirements for the proffered position as stated on the posting notice exceed the requirements indicated on Form ETA 9089, and for this additional reason, the petition will be denied.

An application or petition that fails to comply with the technical requirements of the law may be denied by the AAO even if the Service Center does not identify all of the grounds for denial in the initial decision. See Spencer Enterprises, Inc. v. United States, 229 F. Supp. 2d 1025, 1043 (E.D. Cal. 2001), aff'd, 345 F.3d 683 (9th Cir. 2003); see also Soltane v. DOJ, 381 F.3d 143, 145 (3d Cir. 2004) (noting that the AAO conducts appellate review on a de novo basis).

Beyond the decision of the director, the petitioner has also failed to establish that the beneficiary is qualified for the position. As stated above, according to 20 C.F.R. § 656.5(a)(2), aliens who will be permanently employed as professional nurses must (1) have received a Certificate from the Commission on Graduates of Foreign Nursing Schools (CGFNS), (2) hold a permanent, full and unrestricted license to practice professional nursing in the state of intended employment, or (3) have passed the National Council Licensure Examination for Registered Nurses (NCLEX-RN), administered by the National Council of State Boards of Nursing.

According to 20 C.F.R. § 656.15(c)(2), an employer seeking a Schedule A labor certification for an alien to be employed as a professional nurse (Sec. 656.5(a)(2)) must file as part of its labor certification application documentation that the alien has received a Certificate from the CGFNS; that the alien holds a full and unrestricted (permanent) license to practice nursing in the state of intended employment; or that the alien has passed the NCLEX-RN. Application for certification of employment as a professional nurse may be made only under 20 C.F.R. § 656.15(c) and not under 20 C.F.R. § 656.17.

The record contains evidence that the beneficiary took a language test administered by the International English Language Testing System (IELTS) however that examination is not one of the criteria specified in 20 C.F.R. § 656.5(a)(2). The regulations do not allow for consideration of alternate testing results. The record also contains evidence that the beneficiary was issued an interim permit from the State of California Board of Registered Nursing, which expired on April 10, 2007. The interim permit states on it that it allows the beneficiary to practice nursing under the direct supervision of a registered nurse while the registered nurse is present and available on the patient care unit. It further states that it was issued pending the issuance of a license following examination.

The interim permit is not a license and it is not full, unrestricted and permanent. No other evidence was submitted to establish that the beneficiary meets the requirements. No evidence was submitted to document that the beneficiary has a received a CGFNS or passed the NCLEX-RN. The evidence in the record does not establish that the beneficiary met the requirements of 20 C.F.R. § 656.5(a)(2).

Beyond the decision of the director, the petitioner has also failed to establish its ability to pay the proffered wage. The petitioner must demonstrate its continuing ability to pay the proffered wage from the priority date and continuing until the beneficiary obtains lawful permanent residence. 8 C.F.R. § 204.5(g)(2). Evidence of ability to pay "shall be in the form of copies of annual reports, federal tax returns, or audited financial statements. In a case where the prospective United States employer employs 100 or more workers, the director may accept a statement from a financial officer of the organization which establishes the prospective employer's ability to pay the proffered wage." Id. (Emphasis added.)

The record before the director closed on January 16, 2009 with the receipt by the director of the petitioner's submissions in response to the director's request for evidence. As of that date, the record does not contain any annual reports, federal tax returns, or audited financial statements for the petitioner. A document dated December 17, 2008 on letterhead was submitted containing company profile information. It indicates that the petitioner employs 800 employees. However, the document is not signed and does not include the name or title of the person who wrote it. No evidence was submitted to establish that it is a statement from a financial officer of the petitioner.

The petitioner's failure to provide complete annual reports, federal tax returns, or audited financial statements for each year from the priority date is sufficient cause to dismiss this appeal. Additionally, the letter on letterhead will not be considered for the reasons discussed above.

Accordingly, the petitioner has also failed to establish its continuing ability to pay the proffered wage to the beneficiary since the priority date.

Further, according to USCIS records, the petitioner has filed numerous I-140 petitions on behalf of other beneficiaries. Accordingly, the petitioner must establish that it has had the continuing ability to pay the combined proffered wages to each beneficiary from the priority date of the instant petition. See Matter of Great Wall, 16 I&N Dec. 142, 144-145 (Acting Reg'l Comm'r 1977).

The evidence in the record does not document the priority date, proffered wage and/or wages paid to each beneficiary, whether any of the other petitions have been withdrawn, revoked, or denied, or whether any of the other beneficiaries have obtained lawful permanent residence. Thus, it is also concluded that the petitioner has not established its continuing ability to pay the proffered wage to the beneficiary and the proffered wages to the beneficiaries of its other petitions

The petition will be denied for the above stated reasons, with each considered as an independent and alternative basis for denial. In visa petition proceedings, the burden of proving eligibility for the benefit sought remains entirely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361. Here, that burden has not been met.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
