ON BEHALF OF PETITIONER:

INSTRUCTIONS:

Enclosed please find the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All of the documents related to this matter have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Please be advised that any further inquiry that you might have concerning your case must be made to that office.

If you believe the law was inappropriately applied by us in reaching our decision, or you have additional information that you wish to have considered, you may file a motion to reconsider or a motion to reopen. The specific requirements for filing such a request can be found at 8 C.F.R. § 103.5. All motions must be submitted to the office that originally decided your case by filing a Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion, with a fee of $630. Please be aware that 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(1)(i) requires that any motion must be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reconsider or reopen.

Thank you,

Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The Director, Nebraska Service Center (NSC), denied the immigrant visa petition. The petitioner appealed this denial to the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO), and, on January 12, 2011, the AAO dismissed the appeal. Counsel to the petitioner filed a motion to reopen or reconsider the AAO's decision in accordance with 8 C.F.R. § 103.5. The motion will be dismissed pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(1)(i).

United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) regulations require that motions to reopen or reconsider be filed within 30 days of the underlying decision, except that failure to timely file a motion to reopen may be excused in the discretion of USCIS where it is demonstrated that the delay was reasonable and was beyond the affected party's control. Id. In this matter, the record reflects that the AAO's decision was mailed to both the petitioner at its business address and to its counsel of record with correct and proper instructions regarding the filing of motions to the AAO's dismissal of the appeal. However, contrary to the AAO's specific instruction that "[A]ll motions must be submitted to the office that originally decided your case" on the cover page of the decision issued on January 12, 2011, counsel submitted the motion directly to the AAO rather than the NSC. The AAO returned the motion to counsel on February 15, 2011, and once again specifically informed counsel that any motion to the AAO's prior dismissal of the appeal must be filed with the USCIS office that originally decided the case. Counsel subsequently filed the motion with the NSC on February 28, 2011, 47 days after the AAO dismissed the appeal. As the record does not establish that the failure to file the motion within 30 days of the decision was reasonable and beyond the affected party's control, the motion is untimely and must be dismissed for that reason.

The burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361. The petitioner has not sustained that burden. Accordingly, the motion will be dismissed, the proceedings will not be reopened or reconsidered, and the previous decisions of the director and the AAO will not be disturbed.

ORDER: The motion is dismissed.
