ON BEHALF OF PETITIONER:

INSTRUCTIONS:

Please be advised that any further inquiry that you might have concerning your case must be made to that office.

Ron Rosenberg
Acting Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The preference visa petition was denied by the Director, Texas Service Center (director). The petitioner filed a motion to reconsider the director's decision; the motion was denied and the matter was forwarded to the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) as an appeal, which was subsequently dismissed. While the appeal was pending, the petitioner filed a second motion with the director to reconsider his decision on the previous motion. This motion was also denied. The petitioner is now appealing the director's decision to the AAO. The appeal will be rejected as untimely filed. The AAO will return the matter to the director for consideration as a motion to reopen and reconsider.

In order to properly file an appeal, the regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(i) provides that the affected party or the attorney or representative of record must submit the complete appeal within 30 days of service of the unfavorable decision. If the decision was mailed, the appeal must be filed within 33 days. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.8(b). The date of filing is not the date of submission, but the date of actual receipt with the required fee. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(a)(7)(i).

The director issued the decision on February 10, 2010. The director properly gave notice to the petitioner that it had 33 days to file the appeal. Neither the Act nor the pertinent regulations grant the AAO authority to extend this time limit.

The Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion,¹ was received by the service center on May 17, 2010, or 96 days after the decision was issued. Accordingly, the appeal was untimely filed.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(v)(B)(2) states that, if an untimely appeal meets the requirements of a motion to reopen or a motion to reconsider, the appeal must be treated as a motion, and a decision must be made on the merits of the case. The official having jurisdiction over a motion is the official who made the last decision in the proceeding, in this case the Director, Texas Service Center. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(1)(ii).

As the brief in this matter was submitted directly to the AAO in accordance with 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(viii), the director did not have an opportunity to review the late appeal to determine whether it meets the requirements of a motion to reopen or a motion to reconsider. Therefore, the matter will be returned to the director. If the director determines that the late appeal meets the requirements of a motion, the motion shall be granted and a new decision will be issued.

As the appeal was untimely filed, the appeal must be rejected.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.

¹ It is noted that the appeal filed in the instant case references Form I-140 receipt # SRC 06 226 50900 and appears to be a copy of an appeal filing received by the Texas Service Center on March 12, 2010. The March 12, 2010 appeal was timely filed and will be adjudicated separately by the AAO.
