DISCUSSION: The Director, Nebraska Service Center, denied the immigrant visa petition. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal must be rejected because it was improperly filed.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(v) states:

Improperly filed appeal -- (A) Appeal filed by person or entity not entitled to file it -- (1) Rejection without refund of filing fee. An appeal filed by a person or entity not entitled to file it must be rejected as improperly filed. In such a case, any filing fee the Service has accepted will not be refunded.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(iii) states, in pertinent part:

(B) Meaning of affected party. For purposes of this section and sections 103.4 and 103.5 of this part, affected party (in addition to the Service) means the person or entity with legal standing in a proceeding. It does not include the beneficiary of a visa petition. An affected party may be represented by an attorney or representative in accordance with part 292 of this chapter.

An attorney for a petitioner may file an appeal on behalf of a petitioner in certain circumstances. However, the Form G-28 in this case, dated February 2, 2009, does not establish that the attorney who filed the appeal represents the petitioner for the following two reasons: (1) the Form G-28 was not signed by the petitioner, and (2) the Form G-28 was not submitted by the attorney of record for the I-140, Immigrant Petitioner for Alien Worker, at issue in this matter.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 292.4(a) (1994) provides:

An appearance shall be filed on the appropriate form by the attorney or representative appearing in each case. During Immigration Judge or Board proceedings, withdrawal and/or substitution of counsel is permitted only in accordance with Sec. 3.16 and 3.36 respectively. During proceedings before the Service, substitution may be permitted upon the written withdrawal of the attorney or representative of record, or upon notification of the new attorney or representative. When an appearance is made by a person acting in a representative capacity, his or her personal appearance or signature shall constitute a representation that under the provisions of this chapter he or she is authorized and qualified to represent. Further proof of authority to act in a representative capacity may be required. A notice of appearance entered in application or petition proceedings must be signed by the applicant or petitioner to authorize representation in order for the appearance to be recognized by the Service.

(Emphasis added.) The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(a)(3) provides that where a notice of representation on Form G-28 is “not properly signed, the application or petition will be processed as if the notice had not been submitted.”<sup>1</sup>

The Form G-28 accompanying the Form I-140 in this case was properly executed. However, the attorney who filed the appeal is not the same attorney who filed the I-140. And the petitioner did not sign the Form G-28 accompanying the appeal or the Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(v)(A)(2) provides the following with respect to appeals by attorneys without a proper Form G-28:

(i) General. If an appeal is filed by an attorney or representative without a properly executed Notice of Entry of Appearance as Attorney or Representative (Form G-28) entitling that person to file the appeal, the appeal is considered improperly filed. In such a case, any filing fee the Service has accepted will not be refunded regardless of the action taken.

<sup>1</sup> Not only does the petitioner’s signature on the Form G-28 authorize representation by an attorney or accredited representative in matters before USCIS, it serves as a consent to disclosure of information covered under the Privacy Act of 1974. The Immigration and Naturalization Service (legacy INS) first implemented the requirement that a petitioner or applicant sign the Form G-28 in the final rule “Changes in Processing Procedures for Certain Applications and Petitions for Immigration Benefits” 59 Fed. Reg. 1455 (Jan. 11, 1994). In response to several commenters who suggested that the attorney need be the only signatory on the Form G-28, the agency explained that other commenters had properly noted that capture of the petitioner’s signature on the Form G-28 “would address potential Privacy Act concerns.” The agency emphasized that the “petitioner must sign the Form G-28 to definitively indicate to the Service that he or she has authorized the person to represent him or her in the proceeding.” 59 Fed. Reg. 1455 (Jan. 11, 1994). A 2010 revision to the regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 292.4(a) retains the requirement that a petitioner or applicant sign the Form G-28. 75 Fed. Reg. 5225 (Feb. 2, 2010). The revised regulation states:

An appearance shall be filed on the appropriate form by the attorney or representative appearing in each case. . . . When an appearance is made by a person acting in a representative capacity, his or her personal appearance or signature shall constitute a representation that under the provisions of this chapter he or she is authorized and qualified to represent. Further proof of authority to act in a representative capacity may be required. A notice of appearance entered in application or petition proceedings must be signed by the applicant or petitioner to authorize representation in order for the appearance to be recognized by the Service.

(Emphasis added.)

(ii) When favorable action warranted. If the reviewing official decides favorable action is warranted with respect to an otherwise properly filed appeal, that official shall ask the attorney or representative to submit Form G-28 to the official's office within 15 days of the request. If Form G-28 is not submitted within the time allowed, the official may, on his or her own motion, under Sec. 103.5(a)(5)(i) of this part, make a new decision favorable to the affected party without notifying the attorney or representative.

(iii) When favorable action not warranted. If the reviewing official decides favorable action is not warranted with respect to an otherwise properly filed appeal, that official shall ask the attorney or representative to submit Form G-28 directly to the AAU. The official shall also forward the appeal and the relating record of proceeding to the AAU. The appeal may be considered properly filed as of its original filing date if the attorney or representative submits a properly executed Form G-28 entitling that person to file the appeal.

In this case, the AAO faxed a request for a properly executed Form G-28 to the attorney who filed the appeal. The AAO did not receive a response to the request within the time allowed. As the appeal was improperly filed, the appeal must be rejected.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.
