Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: On July 30, 2002, United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS), Vermont Service Center (VSC), received an Immigrant Petition for Alien Worker, Form I-140, from the petitioner. The employment-based immigrant visa petition was initially approved by the Director, VSC on March 29, 2003. The Director, Texas Service Center, (director) however, revoked the approval of the immigrant petition on June 22, 2009 and the petitioner subsequently appealed the director's decision to revoke the petition's approval. The appeal will be rejected as untimely filed. The Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) will return the matter to the director for consideration as a motion to reopen and reconsider.

In order to properly file an appeal, the regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(i) provides that the affected party or the attorney or representative of record must submit the complete appeal within 15 days of service of the revocation decision. If the decision was mailed, the appeal must be filed within 18 days. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.8(b). The date of filing is not the date of submission, but the date of actual receipt with the required fee. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(a)(7)(i).

The director issued the decision on June 22, 2009. The director properly gave notice to the petitioner that it had 18 days to file the appeal. Neither the Immigration and Nationality Act nor the pertinent regulations grant the AAO authority to extend this time limit.

The Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion, was received by the service center on July 13, 2009, or 21 days after the decision was issued. Accordingly, the appeal was untimely filed.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(v)(B)(2) states that, if an untimely appeal meets the requirements of a motion to reopen or a motion to reconsider, the appeal must be treated as a motion, and a decision must be made on the merits of the case. The official having jurisdiction over a motion is the official who made the last decision in the proceeding, in this case the director. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(1)(ii).

As the brief in this matter was submitted directly to the AAO in accordance with 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(viii), the director did not have an opportunity to review the late appeal to determine whether it meets the requirements of a motion to reopen or a motion to reconsider. Therefore, the matter will be returned to the director. If the director determines that the late appeal meets the requirements of a motion, the motion shall be granted and a new decision will be issued.

As the appeal was untimely filed, the appeal must be rejected.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.
