DISCUSSION: The employment-based immigrant visa petition was initially approved by the Vermont Service Center on March 13, 2003. The Director, Texas Service Center (director), however, revoked the approval of the immigrant petition on August 17, 2009, and the petitioner subsequently appealed the director's decision to revoke the petition's approval. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The petitioner seeks to classify the beneficiary pursuant to section 203(b)(3) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(3) as a skilled worker. The director determined that the petitioner failed to follow the U.S. Department of Labor (DOL) recruitment procedures in connection with the approved labor certification application and that the documents submitted by the petitioner in response to the director's Notice of Intent to Revoke were in themselves a willful misrepresentation of material facts, constituting fraud.

Counsel dated the appeal September 1, 2009 and indicated that the brief and / or additional evidence would be submitted to the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) within 30 days. As of this date, more than three years and one month later, the AAO has received nothing further, and the regulation requires that any brief shall be submitted directly to the AAO. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(vii) and (viii).

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v), an appeal shall be summarily dismissed if the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

Counsel here has not specifically addressed the reasons stated for denial and has not provided any additional evidence. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
