DISCUSSION: The Director, Nebraska Service Center, denied the immigrant visa petition, which is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected as untimely filed. The AAO will return the matter to the director for consideration as a motion to reopen and reconsider.

The petitioner is a plumbing contractor. It seeks to employ the beneficiary permanently in the United States as an estimator pursuant to section 203(b)(3) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. §1153(b)(3). As required by statute, a labor certification approved by the Department of Labor accompanied the petition.

The director determined that the petitioner had not established that the beneficiary possessed the minimum experience required to perform the offered position by the priority date. Therefore, the director denied the petition.

In order to properly file an appeal, the regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(i) provides that the affected party or the attorney or representative of record must submit the complete appeal within 30 days of service of the unfavorable decision. If the decision was mailed, the appeal must be filed within 33 days. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.8(b). The date of filing is not the date of submission, but the date of actual receipt with the required fee. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(a)(7)(i).

The director issued the decision on December 11, 2007. The director properly gave notice to the petitioner that it had 33 days to file the appeal. Neither the Act nor the pertinent regulations grant the AAO authority to extend this time limit. The Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion, was received by the service center on April 27, 2009, or 503 days after the decision was issued. Accordingly, the appeal was untimely filed.

Counsel's brief contends that the delay in filing the Form I-290B was the result of the ineffective assistance of the petitioner's prior counsel,<sup>1</sup> and requests that the AAO accept the untimely filed motion to reopen.<sup>2</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Any appeal or motion based upon a claim of ineffective assistance of counsel requires:

- (1) that the claim be supported by an affidavit of the allegedly aggrieved respondent setting forth in detail the agreement that was entered into with counsel with respect to the actions to be taken and what representations counsel did or did not make to the respondent in this regard,
- (2) that counsel whose integrity or competence is being impugned be informed of the allegations leveled against him and be given an opportunity to respond, and
- (3) that the appeal or motion reflect whether a complaint has been filed with appropriate disciplinary authorities with respect to any violation of counsel's ethical or legal responsibilities, and if not why not.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(v)(B)(2) states that, if an untimely appeal meets the requirements of a motion to reopen or a motion to reconsider, the appeal must be treated as a motion, and a decision must be made on the merits of the case.

The official having jurisdiction over a motion is the official who made the last decision in the proceeding, in this case the Director, Nebraska Service Center. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(1)(ii). Therefore, the matter will be returned to the director. If the director determines that the late appeal meets the requirements of a motion, the motion shall be granted and a new decision will be issued.

As the appeal was untimely filed, the appeal must be rejected.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.

See Matter of Lozada, 19 I&N Dec. 637 (BIA 1988), aff'd, 857 F.2d 10 (1st Cir. 1988).

<sup>2</sup> Although counsel indicated on the Form I-290B that she was filing an appeal, counsel's brief submitted with the Form I-290B states that it is a brief in support of a motion to reopen.
