DISCUSSION: The Director, Texas Service Center, denied the immigrant visa petition, which is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected as untimely filed. The AAO will return the matter to the director for consideration as a motion to reopen and reconsider.

In order to properly file an appeal, the regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(i) provides that the affected party or the attorney or representative of record must submit the complete appeal within 30 days of service of the unfavorable decision. If the decision was mailed, the appeal must be filed within 33 days. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.8(b). The date of filing is not the date of submission, but the date of actual receipt with the required fee. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(a)(7)(i).

The director issued the decision on August 4, 2011. The director properly gave notice to the petitioner that it had 33 days to file the appeal. Neither the Act nor the pertinent regulations grant the AAO authority to extend this time limit.

The Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion, was received by the AAO on September 8, 2011, or 35 days after the decision was issued. Accordingly, the appeal was untimely submitted at that point. The AAO, however, did not accept the appeal for filing and returned the appeal to the petitioner as the appeal was improperly filed with the AAO. As set forth on the director's decision appealed from, the appeal must be filed with the Texas Service Center and "may not" be filed directly with the AAO. The appeal was then accepted for filing by the service center on September 16, 2011, 43 days after the decision was entered.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(v)(B)(2) states that, if an untimely appeal meets the requirements of a motion to reopen or a motion to reconsider, the appeal must be treated as a motion, and a decision must be made on the merits of the case. The official having jurisdiction over a motion is the official who made the last decision in the proceeding, in this case the Director, Texas Service Center. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(1)(ii). Therefore, the matter will be returned to the director. If the director determines that the late appeal meets the requirements of a motion, the motion shall be granted and a new decision will be issued.

As the appeal was untimely filed, the appeal must be rejected.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.
