PETITION: Immigrant Petition for Alien Worker as a Skilled Worker or Professional Pursuant to Section 203(b)(3) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(3)

ON BEHALF OF PETITIONER:

INSTRUCTIONS:

Enclosed please find the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All of the documents related to this matter have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Please be advised that any further inquiry that you might have concerning your case must be made to that office.

If you believe the AAO inappropriately applied the law in reaching its decision, or you have additional information that you wish to have considered, you may file a motion to reconsider or a motion to reopen in accordance with the instructions on Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion, with a fee of $630. The specific requirements for filing such a motion can be found at 8 C.F.R. § 103.5. Do not file any motion directly with the AAO. Please be aware that 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(1)(i) requires any motion to be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reconsider or reopen.

Thank you,

Ron Rosenberg
Acting Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The Director, Nebraska Service Center (director), denied the immigrant visa petition. The subsequent appeal was dismissed by the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO). The matter is now before the AAO on a motion to reopen and reconsider. The motion will be granted, the previous decision of the AAO will be affirmed, and the petition will be dismissed.

The petitioner describes itself as a skilled nursing facility. It seeks to permanently employ the beneficiary in the United States as a registered nurse. The petitioner requests classification of the beneficiary as a professional or skilled worker pursuant to section 203(b)(3)(A) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(3)(A).<sup>1</sup>

The director denied the petition because the petitioner failed to properly post the position in accordance with 20 C.F.R. § 656.10(d)(1). Specifically, the director found that the petitioner failed to post the notice for the requisite ten consecutive business days to allow notice to prospective U.S. workers.

The motion to reopen qualifies for consideration under 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(2) due to evidence not previously available.

The procedural history in this case is documented by the record and incorporated into the decision. Further elaboration of the procedural history will be made only as necessary.

The petitioner filed a motion to reopen and reconsider on August 26, 2010. Counsel indicated that he would submit a brief or additional evidence within 30 days. As of the date of this decision, the AAO has not received any additional evidence from counsel or the petitioner. Therefore, the record is complete.

The AAO conducts appellate review on a de novo basis. See Soltane v. DOJ, 381 F.3d 143, 145 (3d Cir. 2004). The AAO considers all pertinent evidence in the record, including new evidence properly submitted upon appeal.<sup>2</sup>

The petition is for a Schedule A occupation. A Schedule A occupation is an occupation codified at 20 § C.F.R. 656.5(a) for which the U.S. Department of Labor (DOL) has determined that there are not sufficient U.S. workers who are able, willing, qualified and available and that the wages and <sup>1</sup> Section 203(b)(3)(A)(i) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(3)(A)(i), grants preference classification to qualified immigrants who are capable of performing skilled labor (requiring at least two years training or experience), not of a temporary nature, for which qualified workers are not available in the United States. Section 203(b)(3)(A)(ii) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(3)(A)(ii), grants preference classification to qualified immigrants who hold baccalaureate degrees and are members of the professions.

<sup>2</sup> The submission of additional evidence on appeal is allowed by the instructions to the Form I-290B, which are incorporated into the regulations by 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(a)(1). See Matter of Soriano, 19 I&N Dec. 764 (BIA 1988).

working conditions of similarly employed U.S. workers will not be adversely affected by the employment of aliens in such occupations. The current list of Schedule A occupations includes professional nurses and physical therapists. Id.

Petitions for Schedule A occupations do not require the petitioner to test the labor market and obtain a certified ETA Form 9089 from the DOL prior to filing the petition with U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS). Instead, the petition is filed directly with USCIS with a duplicate uncertified ETA Form 9089. See 8 C.F.R. §§ 204.5(a)(2) and (1)(3)(i); see also 20 C.F.R. § 656.15.

If the Schedule A occupation is a professional nurse, the petitioner must establish that the beneficiary has a Certificate from the Commission on Graduates of Foreign Nursing Schools (CGFNS); a permanent, full and unrestricted license to practice professional nursing in the state of intended employment; or passed the National Council Licensure Examination for Registered Nurses (NCLEX-RN). See 20 C.F.R. § 656.5(a)(2).

Petitions for Schedule A occupations must also contain evidence establishing that the employer provided its U.S. workers with notice of the filing of an ETA Form 9089 (Notice) as prescribed by 20 C.F.R. § 656.10(d), and a valid prevailing wage determination (PWD) obtained in accordance with 20 C.F.R. § 656.40 and 20 C.F.R. § 656.41. See 20 C.F.R. § 656.15(b)(2).

For the Notice requirement, the employer must provide notice of the filing of an ETA Form 9089 to any bargaining representative for the occupation, or, if there is no bargaining representative, by posted notice to its employees at the location of the intended employment. See 20 C.F.R. § 656.10(d)(1).

The regulation at 20 C.F.R. § 656.10(d)(3) states that the Notice shall:

- (i) State that the notice is being provided as a result of the filing of an application for permanent alien labor certification for the relevant job opportunity;
- (ii) State any person may provide documentary evidence bearing on the application to the Certifying Officer of the Department of Labor;
- (iii) Provide the address of the appropriate Certifying Officer; and
- (iv) Be provided between 30 and 180 days before filing the application.

Notices for Schedule A occupations must also contain a description of the job offered and the rate of pay. See 20 C.F.R. § 656.10(d)(6).

In cases where there is no bargaining representative, the Notice must be posted for at least 10 consecutive business days, and it must be clearly visible and unobstructed while posted. 20 C.F.R. § 656.10(d)(1)(ii). The Notice must be posted in a conspicuous place where the employer's U.S. workers can readily read it on their way to or from their place of employment. Id. In addition, the Notice must be published "in any and all in-house media, whether electronic or printed, in accordance with the normal procedures used for the recruitment of similar positions in the employer's organization." Id. The satisfaction of the Notice requirement may be documented by "providing a copy of the posted notice and stating where it was posted, and by providing copies of all the in-house media" used to distribute the Notice. Id.

On August 26, 2010, the petitioner filed a motion. The motion was filed before the decision of the Department of Labor's (DOL) Board of Alien Labor Certification Appeals (BALCA), In the Matter of Il Cortile Restaurant, 2010-PER-00683 (BALCA October 12, 2010). In that decision, BALCA concluded that the purpose of the notice requirement of 20 C.F.R. § 656.10(d)(1)(ii) can be fulfilled when a Notice of Filing is posted for 10 consecutive days "when employees are on the worksite and [are] able to see the Notice of Filing." Id. at 4. BALCA also stated that "[a]s long as an employer has employees working on the premises on a Saturday, Sunday, or holiday, those days are business days for the purposes of complying with the Notice of Filing posting." Id.

In response to BALCA's recent decision, the DOL changed its "Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)" section on its website on December 21, 2010. The DOL's FAQs on the definition of "business day" for purposes of a Notice of Filing now states:

For purposes of posting the Notice of Filing for a permanent labor application, what does the Office of Foreign Labor Certification count as a "business day"?

OFLC has consistently interpreted "business day" to mean Monday through Friday, except for Federal holidays. However, where an employer is open for business on a Saturday, Sunday, and/or holiday, the employer may include the Saturday, Sunday and/or holiday in its count of the 10 consecutive business day period required for the posting of the Notice of Filing so long as the employer demonstrates that it was open for business on those days. Similarly, where an employer is not open for business any day, Monday through Friday, the employer should not include any such days in its count of the 10 consecutive business day period required for the posting of the Notice of Filing.

How does an employer demonstrate that it is open for business?

If an employer is requested on audit or otherwise to demonstrate that it was open for business on a Saturday, Sunday, and/or holiday at the time of posting, the employer must provide documentation which establishes that on those days: 1) its employees were working on the premises and engaged in normal business activity; 2) the worksite was open and available to its clients and/or customers, if applicable, as well as to its employees; and 3) its employees had access to the area where the Notice of Filing was posted.

See <http://www.foreignlaborcert.doleta.gov/faqsanswers.cfm#notefile1> (accessed January 21, 2011).

In view of this guidance provided by the DOL, it is possible that the petitioner, a medical facility, meets the posting requirement as described above. However, on motion, the petitioner did not submit evidence that it is more likely than not that employees were working on the premises for each of those 10 days; that the worksite at was open and available to patients and employees on each of those 10 days; and that the employees had access to the area where the Notice of Filing was posted.

Even if the petitioner had established that the the Notice was posted for at least 10 consecutive business days, as noted in the AAO's August 9, 2010 decision, the petitioner failed to establish its ability to pay the proffered wage as of the priority date and continuing until the beneficiary obtains lawful permanent residence. See 8 C.F.R. § 204.5(g)(2).

In determining the petitioner's ability to pay the proffered wage, USCIS first examines whether the petitioner has paid the beneficiary the full proffered wage each year from the priority date. If the petitioner has not paid the beneficiary the full proffered wage each year, USCIS will next examine whether the petitioner had sufficient net income or net current assets to pay the difference between the wage paid, if any, and the proffered wage.<sup>3</sup> If the petitioner's net income or net current assets is not sufficient to demonstrate the petitioner's ability to pay the proffered wage, USCIS may also consider the overall magnitude of the petitioner's business activities. See Matter of Sonogawa, 12 I&N Dec. 612 (Reg'l Comm'r 1967).

In the instant case, the petitioner did not employ the beneficiary, and the record contains no evidence of the petitioner's ability to pay the proffered wage such as tax returns, a letter from the CFO, or audited financial statements. Further, the petitioner failed to establish that factors similar to Sonogawa existed in the instant case, which would permit a conclusion that the petitioner had the ability to pay the proffered wage despite its shortfalls in wages paid to the beneficiary, net income and net current assets.

Accordingly, after considering the totality of the circumstances, the petitioner has also failed to establish its continuing ability to pay the proffered wage to the beneficiary since the priority date.

The petition will be denied for the above stated reasons, with each considered as an independent and alternative basis for denial. In visa petition proceedings, the burden of proving eligibility for the benefit sought remains entirely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361. Here, that burden has not been met.
