DISCUSSION: The employment-based preference visa petition was initially approved by the Director, Texas Service Center. In a Notice of Revocation (NOR), the director ultimately revoked the approval of the Form I-140, Immigrant Petition for Alien Worker. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected.

Section 205 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1155, provides that “[t]he Attorney General [now Secretary, Department of Homeland Security], may, at any time, for what he deems to be good and sufficient cause, revoke the approval of any petition approved by him under section 204.” The realization by the director that the petition was approved in error may be good and sufficient cause for revoking the approval. Matter of Ho, 19 I&N Dec. 582, 590 (BIA 1988).

The petitioner must appeal a decision to revoke the approval of a petition within 15 days of service. 8 C.F.R. § 205.2(d). If the unfavorable decision was mailed, the appeal must be filed within 18 days. 8 C.F.R. § 103.8(b). An untimely appeal must be rejected as improperly filed. Neither the Act nor the regulations grant the AAO authority to extend this time limit.

The filing date is the actual date of receipt at the location designated for filing. 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(a)(7)(i). The appeal must be signed and submitted with the correct fee. Id.

The director issued the decision revoking the approved petition on March 5, 2013. The director properly gave notice to the petitioner that it had 18 days to file the appeal. The petitioner filed the Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion, on April 4, 2013, or 30 days after the decision was issued. Accordingly, the appeal is untimely.

If an untimely appeal meets the requirements of a motion to reopen or reconsider, the appeal must be treated as a motion, and a decision must be made on the merits of the case. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(v)(B)(2). The official having jurisdiction over a motion is the official who made the last decision in the proceeding, in this case the Director, Texas Service Center. 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(1)(ii). As the appeal brief and additional evidence in this matter were submitted directly to the AAO in accordance with 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(viii), the director did not have an opportunity to review the untimely appeal to determine whether it meets the requirements of a motion to reopen or reconsider. Therefore, the matter will be returned to the director. If the director determines that the untimely appeal meets the requirements of a motion, the motion shall be granted and a new decision will be issued. If the director determines that the untimely appeal does not meet the requirements of a motion, no new decision will be issued.

The untimely appeal must be rejected pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(v)(B)(I).

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.
