DISCUSSION: The Director, Nebraska Service Center, denied the employment-based immigrant visa petition. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed as moot.

The petitioner is a software and hardware development company. It seeks to employ the beneficiary permanently in the United States as a programmer analyst. The petitioner seeks to classify the beneficiary as an alien worker pursuant to section 203(b)(3) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(3), as a skilled worker or professional. The director determined that the petitioner had not established that it had the continuing ability to pay the beneficiary the proffered wage beginning on the priority date of the visa petition and denied the petition accordingly.

A review of U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) records indicates that, subsequent to filing the instant appeal, the beneficiary's Form I-485 Application to Adjust Status, receipt number [REDACTED], which was approved on February 12, 2013. Because the beneficiary has adjusted to lawful permanent resident status, further pursuit of the matter at hand is moot.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed as moot based on the beneficiary's adjustment to lawful permanent resident status.
