IN RE: Petitioner:
Beneficiary:

PETITION: Immigrant Petition for Alien Worker as a Skilled Worker or Professional Pursuant to Section 203(b)(3) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(3)

ON BEHALF OF PETITIONER:

INSTRUCTIONS:

Enclosed please find the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All of the documents related to this matter have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Please be advised that any further inquiry that you might have concerning your case must be made to that office.

If you believe the AAO inappropriately applied the law in reaching its decision, or you have additional information that you wish to have considered, you may file a motion to reconsider or a motion to reopen in accordance with the instructions on Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion, with a fee of $630. The specific requirements for filing such a motion can be found at 8 C.F.R. § 103.5. Do not file any motion directly with the AAO. Please be aware that 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(1)(i) requires any motion to be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reconsider or reopen.

Thank you,

Ron Rosenberg
Acting Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The employment-based visa petition was denied by the Director, Nebraska Service Center. The subsequent appeal was dismissed by the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO). The matter is now before the AAO on motion to reopen and motion to reconsider. The motions will be dismissed.

The petitioner is a Chinese restaurant. It seeks to employ the beneficiary permanently in the United States as a cook of Chinese style food. As required by statute, the petition is accompanied by a Form ETA 750, Application for Alien Employment Certification, approved by the United States Department of Labor (DOL). Upon reviewing the petition, the director determined that the petitioner failed to demonstrate that a bona fide job offer had been made. The AAO affirmed the director's decision. The AAO also determined that the petitioner had failed to demonstrate that the beneficiary satisfied the minimum level of work experience stated on the labor certification.

The regulations at 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(2) state, in pertinent part, that "[a] motion to reopen must state the new facts to be provided in the reopened proceeding and be supported by affidavits or other documentary evidence." Based on the plain meaning of "new," a new fact is found to be evidence that was not available and could not have been discovered or presented in the previous proceeding.<sup>1</sup>

On motion, the petitioner submitted a July 20, 2006 employment letter (with certified English translation) from the manager of [REDACTED], who stated that the beneficiary had worked there as a cook of Chinese style food since May 2006. The petitioner also submitted letters from the beneficiary's claimed co-workers for the petitioner, photographs showing the beneficiary in a kitchen and in a restaurant dining room, and information regarding the health issues of the employee the beneficiary was being hired to replace. It is noted that the issue of the beneficiary's qualifications for the offered job was first raised by the AAO during the adjudication of the appeal and the petitioner was not previously provided with an opportunity to provide the required evidence. Based upon the evidence submitted on motion, the AAO accepts that the beneficiary possesses the required two years of experience in the job offered as a cook of Chinese style food.

Notwithstanding the above, with respect to the bona fide job offer, the petitioner presented no facts or evidence on motion that may be considered "new" under 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(2) and that could be considered a proper basis for a motion to reopen. All evidence submitted on motion was previously available and could have been discovered or presented in the previous proceeding. The evidence submitted on motion will not be considered "new" and will not be considered a proper basis for a motion to reopen.

A motion to reconsider must state the reasons for reconsideration and be supported by any pertinent precedent decisions to establish that the decision was based on an incorrect application of law or Service policy. A motion to reconsider a decision on an application or petition must, when filed, also establish that the decision was incorrect based on the evidence of record at the time of the initial decision. 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(3).

<sup>1</sup>The word "new" is defined as "1. having existed or been made for only a short time . . . 3. Just discovered, found, or learned <new evidence> . . ." Webster's II New Riverside University Dictionary 792 (1984)(emphasis in original).

Counsel stated on motion that the petition was supported by substantial evidence. However, counsel did not allege or identify any misapplication of law or policy by the AAO. Therefore, this cannot be considered a proper basis for a motion to reconsider.

Motions for the reopening or reconsideration of immigration proceedings are disfavored for the same reasons as petitions for rehearing and motions for a new trial on the basis of newly discovered evidence. See INS v. Doherty, 502 U.S. 314, 323 (1992)(citing INS v. Abudu, 485 U.S. 94 (1988)). A party seeking to reopen a proceeding bears a "heavy burden." INS v. Abudu, 485 U.S. at 110. With the current motion, the movant has not met that burden. The motion will be dismissed.

The burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361. The petitioner has not met that burden.

ORDER: The motion to reopen and motion to reconsider are dismissed. The petition remains denied.
