DISCUSSION: The service center director denied the immigrant visa petition and the matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The petitioner seeks immigrant classification under section 204(a)(1)(A)(iii) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1154(a)(1)(A)(iii), as an alien battered or subjected to extreme cruelty by a United States citizen.

The director denied the petition on the basis of his determination that the petitioner had failed to establish that her spouse subjected her to battery or extreme cruelty. Counsel filed a timely appeal on November 30, 2009.

An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v).

Counsel's appeal consists of three handwritten sentences on the Form I-290B; no appellate brief or additional evidence was submitted. Counsel states that the petitioner submitted substantial evidence in support of her petition and that the adjudicating officer committed legal error in assigning insufficient weight to the evidence submitted by the petitioner. However, counsel fails to specifically state how the director erred in his analysis. Neither counsel nor the petitioner identifies any specific, erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact by the director. Consequently, the appeal must be summarily dismissed in accordance with 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v).

The burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361. The petitioner has not sustained that burden and the appeal will be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
