DISCUSSION: The Director, Vermont Service Center, denied the immigrant visa petition. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed. The petition will remain denied.

The petitioner seeks immigrant classification pursuant to section 204(a)(1)(A)(iii) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (“the Act”), 8 U.S.C. § 1154(a)(1)(A)(iii), as an alien battered or subjected to extreme cruelty by a United States citizen.

The director denied the petition for failure to establish that the petitioner entered into marriage with his wife in good faith and that she subjected him to battery or extreme cruelty during their marriage.

On appeal, the petitioner, through counsel, asserts that he “submitted sufficient documents to establish a bona fide marriage and the abuse he suffered from his US Citizen wife.” Counsel indicated that a brief and/or additional evidence would be submitted to the AAO within 30 days. The Notice of Appeal (Form I-290B) was filed on December 13, 2011. As of the date of this decision, the AAO has not received a brief or additional documentation. The record is now considered complete for purposes of rendering a decision on the appeal.

8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1) states, in pertinent part, that:

(v) Summary dismissal. An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

Inasmuch as the petitioner has failed to specifically identify any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact as a basis for the appeal, the regulations mandate the summary dismissal of the appeal.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
