IN RE: Petitioner:

PETITION: Petition for Immigrant Abused Spouse Pursuant to Section 204(a)(1)(A)(iii) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1154(a)(1)(A)(iii)

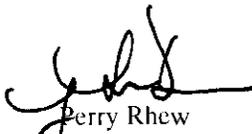

ON BEHALF OF PETITIONER:

INSTRUCTIONS:

Enclosed please find the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All of the documents related to this matter have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Please be advised that any further inquiry that you might have concerning your case must be made to that office.

Thank you,

Perry Rhew

Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The Director, Vermont Service Center, (“the director”) initially approved the immigrant visa petition. Upon further review the director issued a Notice of Intent to Revoke (NOIR) approval of the petition and ultimately revoked approval of the petition. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected as untimely filed. The AAO will return the matter to the director for consideration as a motion to reopen and reconsider.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. 205.2(d) provides that revocations of approvals must be appealed within 15 days after the service of the notice of revocation. If the decision was mailed, the appeal must be filed within 18 days. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.8(b). The record shows that the notice of revocation was mailed on January 6, 2012. The Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion, was received on February 8, 2012, 33 days after the decision was mailed. Thus, the appeal was not timely filed.

It is noted that the director erroneously allowed the petitioner 30 days to file the appeal (33 days if the notice was delivered by mail). The director’s error does not, and cannot, supersede the regulation regarding the time allotted to appeal a revocation of an approved petition.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(v)(B)(2) states that, if an untimely appeal meets the requirements of a motion to reopen or a motion to reconsider, the appeal must be treated as a motion, and a decision must be made on the merits of the case. The official having jurisdiction over a motion is the official who made the last decision in the proceeding, in this matter the Director of the Vermont Service Center. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(1)(ii).

The matter will therefore be returned to the director. If the director determines that the late appeal meets the requirements of a motion, the motion shall be granted and a new decision will be issued.

As the appeal was untimely filed, the appeal must be rejected.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.
