PETITION: Immigrant Petition for Special Immigrant Religious Worker Pursuant to Section 203(b)(4) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(4), as described at Section 101(a)(27)(C) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(27)(C)

ON BEHALF OF PETITIONER:

[Redacted]

INSTRUCTIONS:

Enclosed please find the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All of the documents related to this matter have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Please be advised that any further inquiry that you might have concerning your case must be made to that office.

If you believe the law was inappropriately applied by us in reaching our decision, or you have additional information that you wish to have considered, you may file a motion to reconsider or a motion to reopen. The specific requirements for filing such a request can be found at 8 C.F.R. § 103.5. All motions must be submitted to the office that originally decided your case by filing a Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion, with a fee of $630. Please be aware that 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(1)(i) requires that any motion must be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reconsider or reopen.

Thank you,

Perry Rhew
Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The Director, California Service Center, denied the employment-based immigrant visa petition. On appeal, the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) remanded the matter for consideration and action pursuant to new regulations promulgated on November 26, 2008. The director again denied the petition and the matter is now before the AAO on certification. The AAO will affirm the director's decision.

Part 1 of the Form I-360, Petition for Amerasian, Widow(er), or Special Immigrant, identifies the [REDACTED] as the petitioner. Review of the Form I-360, however, indicates that the alien is the petitioner. An applicant or petitioner must sign his or her application or petition. 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(a)(2). In this instance, Part 9 of the Form I-360, "Signature," has been signed not by any church official, but by the alien himself. Thus, the alien, and not the church, has taken responsibility for the content of the petition.

The petitioner seeks classification as a special immigrant religious worker pursuant to section 203(b)(4) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(4), to perform services as a pastor. On certification, the director determined that the petitioner had failed to establish that he worked continuously in a qualifying religious occupation or vocation for two full years prior to the date the petition was filed. The petitioner submits no further argument or evidence on certification.

Section 203(b)(4) of the Act provides classification to qualified special immigrant religious workers as described in section 101(a)(27)(C) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(27)(C), which pertains to an immigrant who:

(i) for at least 2 years immediately preceding the time of application for admission, has been a member of a religious denomination having a bona fide nonprofit, religious organization in the United States;

(ii) seeks to enter the United States –

(I) solely for the purpose of carrying on the vocation of a minister of that religious denomination,

(II) before September 30, 2012, in order to work for the organization at the request of the organization in a professional capacity in a religious vocation or occupation, or

(III) before September 30, 2012, in order to work for the organization (or for a bona fide organization which is affiliated with the religious denomination and is exempt from taxation as an organization described in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986) at the request of the organization in a religious vocation or occupation; and

(iii) has been carrying on such vocation, professional work, or other work continuously for at least the 2-year period described in clause (i).

The issue presented is whether the petitioner has established that he worked continuously in a qualifying religious vocation or occupation for two full years immediately preceding the filing of the visa petition.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 204.5(m) provides that to be eligible for classification as a special immigrant religious worker, the alien must:

(4) Have been working in one of the positions described in paragraph (m)(2) of this section, either abroad or in lawful immigration status in the United States, and after the age of 14 years continuously for at least the two-year period immediately preceding the filing of the petition. The prior religious work need not correspond precisely to the type of work to be performed. A break in the continuity of the work during the preceding two years will not affect eligibility so long as:

(i) The alien was still employed as a religious worker;

(ii) The break did not exceed two years; and

(iii) The nature of the break was for further religious training or for sabbatical that did not involve unauthorized work in the United States. However, the alien must have been a member of the petitioner's denomination throughout the two years of qualifying employment.

Therefore, the petitioner must show that he worked in a qualifying religious occupation or vocation, either abroad or in lawful immigration status in the United States, continuously for at least the two-year period immediately preceding the filing of the petition. The petition was filed on April 7, 2008. Accordingly, the petitioner must establish that he was continuously employed in qualifying religious work throughout the two-year period immediately preceding that date.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 204.5(m)(11) provides:

Evidence relating to the alien's prior employment. Qualifying prior experience during the two years immediately preceding the petition or preceding any acceptable break in the continuity of the religious work, must have occurred after the age of 14, and if acquired in the United States, must have been authorized under United States immigration law. If the alien was employed in the United States during the two years immediately preceding the filing of the application and:

(i) Received salaried compensation, the petitioner must submit IRS documentation that the alien received a salary, such as an IRS Form W-2 or certified copies of income tax returns.

(ii) Received non-salaried compensation, the petitioner must submit IRS documentation of the non-salaried compensation if available.

(iii) Received no salary but provided for his or her own support, and provided support for any dependents, the petitioner must show how support was maintained by submitting with the petition additional documents such as audited financial statements, financial institution records, brokerage account statements, trust documents signed by an attorney, or other verifiable evidence acceptable to USCIS.

If the alien was employed outside the United States during such two years, the petitioner must submit comparable evidence of the religious work.

The petitioner indicated on the Form I-360, Petition for Amerasian, Widow(er), or Special Immigrant, that he entered the United States without inspection on April 28, 1990. In a December 3, 2007 letter submitted in support of the petition, [REDACTED] the administrative bishop of the petitioner's prospective employer, stated that the petitioner had been a minister of the [REDACTED] since 2005. The petitioner submitted no documentation to establish that he was continuously employed during the qualifying two-year period.

On appeal, [REDACTED] stated that its pastors are supported by donations from their local congregations and that the petitioner can be expected to receive about $36,000 per year. The petitioner, however, submitted no documentation to establish that he received any compensation during the two-year qualifying period. The petitioner submitted a copy of an article from the June 30, 2005 edition of the Daily Journal indicating that he had started his church approximately eight months earlier, and a December 12, 2008 page from the website of the [REDACTED] indicating that he was pastor of a church in [REDACTED]. The petitioner submitted no other documentation to establish that he worked continuously in a religious occupation or vocation during the qualifying period.

Additionally, the petitioner stated that he was not in a lawful immigration status during the two years immediately preceding the filing of the visa petition. Any work performed by the petitioner in the United States while in an unlawful immigration status interrupts the continuity of his work experience for the purpose of this visa petition.

Accordingly, the petitioner has failed to establish he worked continuously in a qualifying religious occupation or vocation for two full years prior to the filing of the visa petition.

Beyond the decision of the director, we note that the record does not contain the attestation required by regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 204.5(m)(7) and fails to establish how the petitioner's prospective employer intends to compensate him as required by the regulation at regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 204.5(m)(10).

The AAO will affirm the certified denial for the above stated reasons, with each considered as an independent and alternative basis for denial. In visa petition proceedings, the burden of proving eligibility for the benefit sought remains entirely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361. The petitioner has not sustained that burden.

ORDER: The director's decision of August 8, 2009 is affirmed. The petition is denied.
