DISCUSSION: The employment-based immigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, California Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected.

The Form I-360, Petition for Amerasian, Widow(er) or Special Immigrant, filed with the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS), indicates that the Church of God of Prophecy is the petitioner. The petition, however, is signed by [REDACTED]. Therefore, the Church of God of Prophecy cannot be considered as having filed the petition on behalf of [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] shall be considered as the self-petitioner.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(iii) states, in pertinent part:

(B) Meaning of affected party. For purposes of this section and §§ 103.4 and 103.5 of this part, affected party (in addition to the Service) means the person or entity with legal standing in a proceeding. It does not include the beneficiary of a visa petition.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(v) states:

Improperly filed appeal – (A) Appeal filed by person or entity not entitled to file it – (1) Rejection without refund of filing fee. An appeal filed by a person or entity not entitled to file it must be rejected as improperly filed. In such a case, any filing fee the Service has accepted will not be refunded.

Only an affected party, a person or entity with legal standing, may file an appeal of an unfavorable decision. The Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion, is signed by [REDACTED] as attorney for the Church of God of Prophecy. The only G-28, Notice of Entry of Appearance as Attorney or Representative, in the record of proceeding is on behalf of the Church of God of Prophecy, and has been signed by a representative of that organization. The appeal has not been filed by the petitioner, or by any entity with legal standing in the proceeding, but rather, by counsel for the Church of God of Prophecy. Therefore the appeal has not been properly filed and must be rejected.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.
