IN RE: Petitioner:
Beneficiary:

PETITION: Immigrant Petition for Special Immigrant Religious Worker Pursuant to Section 203(b)(4) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(4), as described at Section 101(a)(27)(C) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(27)(C)

ON BEHALF OF PETITIONER:

INSTRUCTIONS:

Enclosed please find the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All of the documents related to this matter have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Please be advised that any further inquiry that you might have concerning your case must be made to that office.

Thank you,

Perry Rhew
Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The Director, California Service Center, initially approved the employment-based immigrant visa petition on May 2, 2005. On further review, the director determined that the petitioner was not eligible for the visa preference classification. Accordingly, the director properly served the petitioner with a Notice of Intent to Revoke (NOIR) approval of the petition on June 29, 2010 and her reasons for doing so and subsequently exercised her discretion to revoke approval of the petition on September 14, 2010. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The AAO will withdraw the director's decision and remand the petition to the California Service Center for further consideration and action.

The petition was initially approved on May 2, 2005. The revocation at issue in the instant matter is erroneously based upon regulations that became effective on November 26, 2008 after the initial approval of the petition. Accordingly, the director must issue a new notice and decision based upon the regulations in effect at the time of the approval of the petition.

As always in these proceedings, the burden of proof rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361.

ORDER: The matter is remanded to the Director, California Service Center, for the issuance of a new notice and decision. If the new decision is adverse to the petitioner, it shall be certified to the AAO for review.
