Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The Acting Director of the Vermont Service Center (the director) denied the immigrant visa petition (Form I-360) and the matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The petitioner filed the Form I-360 self-petition on January 14, 2014. The director denied the petition on June 19, 2014, for failure to establish that the petitioner was eligible for immigrant classification based on a qualifying relationship with a U.S. citizen or lawful permanent resident. The petitioner timely appealed on July 15, 2014; however, she makes no claims or assertions on appeal. The petitioner indicates on the Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal of Motion, that she will submit a brief and/or additional evidence to our office within 30 days. To date no brief or additional evidence has been received by our office.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v) states in pertinent part:

Summary dismissal. An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

Here, the petitioner failed to identify any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact in the director's decision. The petitioner's appeal shall therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
