DISCUSSION: The Director, California Service Center, denied the petition for a special immigrant as an international organization employee. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed as moot.

The petitioner filed Form I-360, Petition for Amerasian, Widow or Special Immigrant, pursuant to Section 203(b)(4) of the Act, seeking classification of the beneficiary as a Section 101(a)(27)(I)(i) special immigrant. The director denied the petition concluding that the beneficiary does not qualify as a special immigrant.

It appears that the petitioner's intention was to file a petition for the sister of a United States citizen pursuant to Section 203(a)(4) of the Act. The petitioner submitted the Form I-360 and circled the words "family member" within the selection for "special immigrant international organization employee or family member." The petitioner filed a Form I-290B in an attempt to appeal the decision of the director. On appeal, the petitioner states that she was given the incorrect form at the U.S. Embassy in Dakha and it should be reconsidered for the correct classification.

A review of U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) records indicates that the beneficiary of this petition adjusted status to that of a U.S. lawful permanent resident as of May 28, 2006.

While the petitioner has not withdrawn the appeal in this proceeding, it would appear that the beneficiary is presently a lawful permanent resident. Accordingly, the AAO finds that the beneficiary's adjustment of status deprives this appeal of any practical significance. Considerations of prudence warrant the dismissal of the appeal as moot. See Matter of Luis, 22 I&N Dec. 747, 753 (BIA 1999).

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed as moot.
