Perry Rhew
Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The Director, California Service Center, denied the nonimmigrant visa petition and the matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed. The petition will be denied.

On the Form I-129, Petition for a Nonimmigrant Worker, the petitioner states that it operates an assisted living facility for adults, that it was established in 2000, that it employs 8 personnel, and that it has a gross annual income of $400,000. It seeks to employ the beneficiary as a rehabilitation case management specialist. Accordingly, the petitioner endeavors to classify the beneficiary as a nonimmigrant worker in a specialty occupation pursuant to section 101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(H)(i)(b).

On October 2, 2008, the director denied the petition, determining that the petitioner failed to establish that the proffered position is a specialty occupation.

Counsel submitted a timely Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal on November 4, 2008 and indicated that a brief and/or additional evidence would be submitted to the AAO within 30 days. As of this date, however, the AAO has not received any additional evidence into the record. Therefore, the record is complete.

An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v).

Counsel's statement on the Form I-290B reads:

The proffered position is a specialty occupation, with highly specialized duties that warrant the H1B classification. The evidence on record, as well as additional evidence to be submitted with the appeal brief, will clearly substantiate this finding.

Counsel does not provide any further information or make any further statement addressing the director's decision. Neither counsel nor the petitioner specifies how the director made any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact in denying the petition. As neither the petitioner nor counsel presents additional evidence on appeal to overcome the decision of the director, the appeal will be summarily dismissed in accordance with 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v).

The burden of proof in this proceeding rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361. The petitioner has not sustained that burden.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed. The petition is denied.
